

Civil procedural legal relations

The court as a main party of civil procedural legal relations

- An obligatory participant in civil procedural legal relation is the court. The court as a subject of state power called upon to administrative justice.
- A court can act as the sole body (if civil proceeding are conducted in the court of first instance) and the collegial body (when reviewing the case in cassation, through judicial review). With a collegiate body, the court consist of three professional judges, one of whom is the presiding judge.

The concept of civil procedural legal relations.

- Civil procedural legal relations- the relations arising between subjects of civil legal proceedings in civil cases, regulated by the civil legislation
