Shillingbury Shillingbury is a village and hamlet in the parish of Shillingbury, Wiltshire, England. It is situated about 1.5 miles (2.4 km) north of the town of Marlborough. The village is known for its 12th-century church, St. Andrew's, which is a Grade I listed building. The church is a simple rectangular building with a square tower at the west end. The tower has a square plan and is built of flint and stone. The church is surrounded by a low wall and has a small graveyard. The village is also known for its 16th-century manor house, Shillingbury Manor, which is a Grade II listed building. The manor house is a large, rectangular building with a central tower. It has a red brick exterior and a tiled roof. The manor house is surrounded by a large garden and is set in a rural location. The village is also home to a primary school, Shillingbury Primary School, and a village hall. The village is a quiet and peaceful place, with a small population of about 100 people. It is a popular destination for tourists who are interested in history and architecture. The village is also a good base for exploring the surrounding countryside, which includes the Marlborough Downs and the Marlborough Railway. The village is a beautiful and historic place, with a rich heritage and a charming atmosphere. It is a great place to visit if you are looking for a quiet and peaceful getaway. The village is a must-see for anyone who is interested in the history and architecture of Wiltshire. The village is a beautiful and historic place, with a rich heritage and a charming atmosphere.
