

Witold Gombrowicz: a minimalist key

1. The author

Witold Gombrowicz (1903-1969) was a Polish-born writer who spent most of his life in Argentina. He is known for his satirical and philosophical works, particularly his novel Invocación (Invocation) and his autobiography El gran mundo (The Great World). Gombrowicz's writing is characterized by its brevity and its focus on the human condition, often exploring themes of identity, social hierarchy, and the individual's struggle against external forces. His work is considered a key text in the development of Latin American modernist literature.

2. The work

The work Invocación is a satirical novel that explores the theme of social hierarchy and the individual's struggle against external forces. The story is set in a fictional town where the protagonist, a young man, is faced with the challenge of navigating a complex and often absurd social structure. The novel is characterized by its minimalist style and its focus on the human condition, often exploring themes of identity, social hierarchy, and the individual's struggle against external forces. The work is considered a key text in the development of Latin American modernist literature.
