How to Build a Successful Mentoring Program Using the Elements of Effective Practice MENTOR/National Mentoring Partnership,2005 A Blueprint for Promoting Academic and Social Competence in

After-School Programs Thomas P. Gullotta, Martin Bloom, Christianne F. Gullotta, Jennifer C. Messina, 2010-06-25 School activities alone are not always sufficient to ensure children's academic progress or socio-emotional development and well-being. And the time when many children typically have the least adult supervision immediately after school is also the time that they are at the highest risk to act as perpetrators or become victims of antisocial behavior. Throughout A Blueprint for Promoting Academic and Social Competence in After-School Programs, which focuses on children in grades 1 through 6, noted experts identify the best practices of effective programs and pinpoint methods for enhancing school-based skills and making them portable to home and neighborhood settings. This volume 1 Analyzes the concepts central to effective after-school programs 2 Offers developmental, cognitive, and social ecology perspectives on how children learn 3 Features more than 100 exercises that develop young people's capabilities for academic, social, moral, and emotional learning. These exercises are ready to use or can be adapted to students' unique needs 4 Emphasizes young people's development as students and as productive members of society during middle to late childhood and early adolescence 5 Presents explicit theory and evidence that can be used to explain the value of after-school programs for budget proposals. This important book will find an appreciative, ready audience among the program directors who design after-school curricula, the educators who implement them, the mental health and social work professionals who help staff them, and the current crop of graduate students who will create the next generation of programs. ECIC 2013 Proceedings of the 5th European Conference on Intellectual Capital Lidia Garcia, Arturo Rodriguez-Castellanos, Jon Barrutia-Guenaga, 2013 The School Leader's Guide to Restorative School Discipline Luanna H. Intercultural Competences for Vocational Education and Training Filippo Bignami, Maria Giovanna Onorata, 2014-11-19T00:00:00+01:00 In a globalized world characterized by transnational migration flows as an inevitable consequence of the increased mobility of individuals, coping with differences and with cultural discontinuity has become the main challenge in the education and training sector at all levels. This book is addressed to professionals in vocational education and training in an attempt to provide suggestions on innovative methods and intercultural approaches for inclusive, continuous education. Starting from the achievements of the I-VET European project led by an international consortium of Universities and training organizations, the book traces the broad, multi-disciplinary epistemological framework underlying the proposed innovative methodology based on experiential learning and reflective practice, and the didactic choices piloted with a group of VET teachers and trainers. The focus is intercultural competence achieved through a situated and contextualized exercise of awareness about the specific situations in which differences emerge and mutual adjustment between different frameworks in full accordance with the constructionist approach to social interaction at the basis of the whole study. Juvenile Justice, 1993 Educating Our Black Children Richard Majors, 2005-06-29 Exclusion and expulsion of black children from schools is endemic in the US and UK. This book takes a long, hard look at the two countries and uncovers what they can learn from each other about approaching this problem      Developing and Implementing Promising Practices and Programs for First-Generation College Students Charmaine Troy, Karen Jackson, Ben Pearce, Diana Rowe, 2022-09-26 As first generation students gain greater access to higher education faculty and staff at colleges and universities must provide intentional engagement that supports their persistence and graduation This book serves as a guidebook for higher education practitioners seeking to implement or enhance first generation programming at their institutions The chapters provide detailed descriptions of the development implementation and assessment of programs and practices intended to support the success of first generation college students Authors share insights on building allies identifying and working through challenges and applicable takeaways for implementing similar practices and programs at the reader's own institutions Programming discussed in the book ranges in funding levels and includes activities such as faculty dinners study abroad bridge programs living learning communities peer mentoring intrusive advising and holistic well being This valuable resource helps higher education practitioners better support and position first generation students for success      Funding And Outcomes Amelia Scott, AI, 2025-02-21 Funding and Outcomes tackles the crucial question of whether increased educational funding directly translates to improved student performance exploring the complex relationship between education finance and academic achievement It delves into the economics of education highlighting how the way resources are allocated may be more critical than the amount itself Intriguingly the book reveals that simply increasing funding without strategic allocation does not guarantee better educational outcomes The book utilizes econometric analysis and international datasets like PISA and TIMSS to draw conclusions The book progresses from establishing a theoretical framework to analyzing various funding models and assessment strategies across different countries It examines how these models impact student performance and educational outcomes The analysis considers the limitations of standardized testing and delves into case studies of targeted funding initiatives Ultimately Funding and Outcomes provides valuable insights for policymakers and educators emphasizing the importance of efficiency equity and targeted interventions in maximizing the return on educational investment      Student mentoring programs Education's monitoring and information sharing could be improved : report to congressional requesters. ,
