Resources in Education , 1998 OECD Reviews of Evaluation and Assessment in Education: North Macedonia

OECD, 2019-06-04 The Republic of North Macedonia has made remarkable progress in expanding access to education and strengthening institutional capacity Yet the majority of young Macedonians leave school without mastering the basic competencies for life and work and students background continues to influence performance This review developed in cooperation with UNICEF provides North Macedonia with recommendations to help strengthen its evaluation and assessment system by moving towards a system where assessment provides students with helpful feedback to improve learning Critical Perspectives on Teachers and Teaching Jessica Holloway, 2024-02-08 This book draws attention to the new ways the field of education is problematising the emerging and evolving conditions that shape the work lives and identities of teachers It offers geographically diverse accounts of the teacher and teaching demonstrating what it means to do critical research well Teachers and their practice have been and continue to be important sites of critical research This book offers varied perspectives from diverse geographies to examine how teacher subjectivities are shaped by conditions of possibility Collectively they show how critiquing conditions rather than the teachers themselves provide a means for problematising the teacher while also advocating the well being of teachers as humans Contributions offer compelling examples of how critical scholars can emphasise teaching as a political and value laden exercise and therefore treat the teacher subject as also being constituted through political and value laden discourses Critical Perspectives on Teachers and Teaching offers a provocation to inspire new questions moving forward That is critical researchers have an obligation to challenge taken for granted assumptions not only by looking outwards at the policymakers edu businesses and intergovernmental agencies e g OECD but also by looking inwards and challenging their assumptions about power discourse and subjectivity This book was originally published as a special issue of Critical Studies in Education

General Surgery Residency Survival Guide Asanthi Ratnasekera, Marc Neff, Kahyun Yoon-Flannery, Alec Beekley, 2023-03-27 There are over 250 surgical residencies in the United States Most residents experience some degree of shock once they start on the very first day and the demands of residency are high The current overall dropout rate is 16% and there is evidence for higher burnout rates suicide rates addiction rates and divorce rates among all surgeons compared to other careers There is therefore a critical need for the education of resiliency during surgical residency and guidance on surviving this challenging portion of their career Unfortunately the experiences of trial and error are the basis for survival and resiliency training is often overlooked as part of the traditional surgical training This practical guide is founded on many conversations with struggling general surgery residents and will have wide appeal utilizing these experiences via interviews with current residents at different residency programs and covering an even wider variety of topics with variable experiences based on differing ages races sexes and marital statuses Each chapter begins with a topic and a brief introduction expansion on the topic based on their unique experiences and then a concluding list of pearls to remember and use in daily residency The topics are broken down thematically into five main sections covering the breadth of residency experience and work life balance academics clinical duties life outside of work leadership and ethics and basic survival skills and self care Written by current residents for current residents General Surgery Residency Survival Guide will be a valuable resource for everyone navigating this challenging portion of their medical career
