Joseph Ratzinger, 2018-08-22 In this book of meditations based on a series of meditations by the author shortly before he became Archbishop of Munich Freising in 1977 theologian Joseph Ratzinger Pope Benedict XVI presents his profound thoughts on the nature and person of God building a bridge between theology and spirituality as he makes wide use of the Sacred Scriptures to reveal the beauty and mystery of who God is He writes about each of the three persons in the Holy Trinity showing the different attributes of each person and that God is three and God is one God is and the Christian faith adds God is as Father Son and Holy Spirit three and one This is the very heart of Christianity but it is so often shrouded in a silence born of perplexity Has the Church perhaps gone one step too far here Ought we not rather leave something so great and inaccessible as God in his inaccessibility Can something like the Trinity have any real meaning for us It is certainly true that the proposition that God is three and God is one is and remains the expression of his otherness which is infinitely greater than us and transcends all our thinking and our existence But as Joseph Ratzinger shows if this proposition meant nothing to us it would not have been revealed And it could be clothed in human language only because it had already penetrated human thinking and living to some extent Without Jesus we do not know what Father truly is This becomes visible in his prayer which is the foundation of his being A Jesus who was not continuously absorbed in the Father and was not in continuous intimate communication with him would be a completely different being from the Jesus of the Bible the real Jesus of history In Jesus prayer the Father becomes visible and Jesus makes himself known as the Son The unity which this reveals is the Trinity Accordingly becoming a Christian means sharing in Jesus prayer entering into the model provided by his life i e the model of prayer Becoming a Christian means saying Father with Jesus Joseph Ratzinger Pope Benedict XVI Aquinas's Eschatological Ethics and the Virtue of Temperance Matthew Levering, 2019-11-15 Matthew Levering offers a biblical and Thomistic portrait of the cardinal virtue of temperance and its allied virtues in dialogue with an ecumenical range of theologians and scholars In Aquinas's Eschatological Ethics and the Virtue of Temperance Levering argues that Catholic ethics make sense only in light of the biblical worldview that Jesus has inaugurated the kingdom of God by pouring out his spirit Jesus has made it possible for us to know and obey God's law for human flourishing as individuals and communities He has reoriented our lives toward the goal of beatific communion with him in charity which affects the exercise of the moral virtues that pertain to human flourishing Without the context of the inaugurated kingdom Catholic ethics as traditionally conceived will seem like an effort to find a middle ground between legalistic rigorism and relativistic laxism which is especially the case with the virtue of temperance the focus of Levering's book After an opening chapter on the eschatological biblical character of Catholic ethics the ensuing chapters engage Aquinas's theology of temperance in the Summa theologiae which identifies and examines a number of virtues associated with temperance Levering demonstrates that the theology of temperance is profoundly biblical and that Aquinas's theology of temperance relies for its intelligibility upon Christ's inauguration of the kingdom of God as the graced fulfillment of our created nature The book develops new vistas for scholars
