Resisting Injustice and the Feminist Ethics of Care in the Age of Obama David A.J. Richards,2014-02-05 David A J Richards s Resisting Injustice and The Feminist Ethics of Care in The Age of Obama Suddenly All The Truth Was Coming Out builds on his and Carol Gilligan s The Deepening Darkness to examine the roots of the resistance movements of the 1960s the political psychology behind contemporary conservatism and President Obama s present day appeal as well as the reasons for the reactionary politics against him Richards begins by laying out the basics of the ethics of care and proposing an alternative basis for ethics relationality which is based in convergent findings in infant research neuroscience and evolutionary psychology He critically analyzes patriarchal politics and states that they are rooted in a reactionary psychology that attacks human relationality and ethics From there the book examines the 1960s resistance movements and argues that they were fundamentally oriented around challenging patriarchy Richards asserts that the reactionary politics in America from the 1960s to the present are in service of an American patriarchy threatened by the resistance movements ranging from the 1960s civil rights movements to the present gay rights movement Reactionary politics intend to marginalize and even reverse the ethical achievements accomplished by resistance movements creating in effect a system of patriarchy hiding in democracy Richards consequently argues that Obama's appeal is connected to his challenge to this system of patriarchy and will examine both Obama's appeal and the reactions against him in light of the 2012 presidential election This book positions recent American political development in a broad analysis of the role of patriarchy in human oppression throughout history and argues that a feminist based ethics of care is necessary to form a more humane and inclusive democratic politics

From Migrant to Worker Michele Ford, 2019-04-15 What happens when local unions begin to advocate for the rights of temporary migrant workers asks Michele Ford in her sweeping study of seven Asian countries Until recently unions in Hong Kong Japan Malaysia Singapore South Korea Taiwan and Thailand were uniformly hostile towards foreign workers but Ford deftly shows how times and attitudes have begun to change Now she argues NGOs and the Global Union Federations are encouraging local unions to represent and advocate for these peripheral workers and in some cases succeeding From Migrant to Worker builds our understanding of the role the international labor movement and local unions have had in developing a movement for migrant workers labor rights Ford examines the relationship between different kinds of labor movement actors and the constraints imposed on those actors by resource flows contingency and local context Her conclusions show that in countries Hong Kong Malaysia and Thailand where resource flows and local factors give the Global Union Federations more influence local unions have become much more engaged with migrant workers But in countries Japan and Taiwan for example where they have little effect there has been little progress While much has changed Ford forces us to see that labor migration in Asia is still fraught with complications and hardships and that local unions are not always able or willing to act

Automotive Industrialisation Kaoru Natsuda, John Thoburn, 2020-10-14 This book looks at the industrial policies of Southeast Asian economies in their motor vehicle industries from early import substitution to policy making under the more liberalised WTO policy regime The book examines how inward automotive investment especially from Japan has been affected by policies and how such investment has promoted industrial development in the late industrialising economies within ASEAN Association of Southeast Asian Nations It provides insights into the automotive industry of Southeast Asia in terms of production volumes sales volumes market structure and trade Through country case studies the book is a useful reference and illustrates how industrial policies in Southeast Asia have affected the spread of automotive development in the region It will appeal to policy makers and researchers interested in the automobile industry industrial policies in the industry and the spread of development from foreign investors to local firms

Gendered Labour, Everyday Security and Migration Shih Joo Tan, 2022-11-03 Drawing on original empirical research from Singapore and Hong Kong Gendered Labour Everyday Security and Migration interrogates women migrant domestic workers experiences of work and workplace exploitation It examines the ways in which these women negotiate everyday security and safe work against the backdrop of affective employment relations and institutional structures of labour and migration law It challenges the current emphasis on the language of exploitation and legal approaches to identifying understanding and rectifying poor employment conditions for women migrant domestic workers This book addresses the limited research literature that examines the extent to which regulatory or criminal justice responses are relevant to and utilised by women migrant domestic workers in their everyday negotiation of safe work and offers a unique contribution to the field An accessible and compelling read it will be of interest to researchers from across the fields of criminology sociology labour migration studies and women s studies

A grammar of Kagayanen Carol J. Pebley, Thomas E. Payne, 2024-07-05 Kagayanen is a resilient Austronesian Greater Central Philippine Manobo language spoken by about 30 000 individuals mostly in Palawan province in the Philippines This grammar is the result of nearly 40 years of research by Carol Pebley and a team of Kagayanen speakers and non Kagayanen co workers The primary data source is a corpus of texts collected over a 20 year period These texts three of which appear in an appendix to this book provide vivid insights into Kaganayan ways of being The grammar is written with a general linguistics audience in mind from a communication first perspective It should prove useful to specialists in Austronesian languages linguistic typologists and others interested in doing research in the central Philippines It is also hoped that this grammar will be an encouragement to Kaganayan speakers proving that their language is wonderfully complex and deserves an equal place alongside other regional and international languages Journalism Without Profit Magda Konieczna,2018-06-21 The last decade has witnessed a dramatic decline in the presence and influence of legacy news organizations This decline has led to tremendous growth in news startups which have attempted to fill the gap left by their legacy counterparts by producing the quality public service journalism upon which the health of U S democracy depends If legacy news organizations with their existing infrastructure are failing can these startups do any better This question lies at the heart of Journalism Without Profit Magda Konieczna explores three prominent news nonprofits the Center for Public Integrity one of the oldest and largest of its kind the Wisconsin Center for Investigative Journalism a university based watchdog news organization that relies on others to publish its work and MinnPost an online news website Through in depth study of the practices of each newsroom Konieczna isolates one common behavior that will contribute to their success the way these organizations collaborate and share stories Though this emergent behavior differentiates news nonprofits from the mainstream journalism from which they arose it also ties the two forms of journalism together as news nonprofits attempt to share stories with mainstream publications In other words the very behavior that may enable these organizations to do better than their mainstream counterparts also limits their ability to evolve much beyond them In one of the first major books to focus on nonprofit journalism Konieczna investigates the major questions that will open the field up to further study Where did nonprofit news come from and where is it going Who funds it and why Ultimately Konieczna offers a new way to think about the seismic changes in journalism that are defining the 21st century Pope Francis Father Michael Collins,2015-08-04 Pope Francis A Photographic Portrait of the People's Pope offers a rare look at life behind the scenes with His Holiness Pope Francis Inspiring photographs from one of Pope Francis official photographers Rodolfo Felici capture both significant and informal events from papal visits throughout the world to spontaneous moments at the Vatican creating an exceptionally intimate portrait of the pope and an inside look at papal life In Pope Francis A Photographic Portrait of the People's Pope this close up is coupled with the inside knowledge of author Father Michael Collins a former adviser at the Vatican who provides a complete look at the workings of the papacy and the Holy City Created in full cooperation with the Vatican Pope Francis A Photographic Portrait of the People's Pope is a beautiful tribute to His Pope Francis the first Jesuit and Latin American pope and a true pope of the people State, Foreign Operations, and Related Programs Appropriations for 2010, Part 4, March 25, 2009, 111-1 Hearings ,2010
