Readence, Thomas W. Bean, R. Scott Baldwin, 2004 Writing the Classroom Stephen E. Neaderhiser, 2022-11-21 Writing the Classroom explores how faculty compose and use pedagogical documents to establish classroom expectations and teaching practices as well as to articulate the professional identities they perform both inside and outside the classroom The contributors to this unique collection employ a wide range of methodological frameworks to demonstrate how pedagogical genres even ones as seemingly straightforward as the class syllabus have lives extending well beyond the classroom as they become part of how college teachers represent their own academic identities advocate for pedagogical values and negotiate the many external forces that influence the act of teaching Writing the Classroom shines a light on genres that are often treated as two dimensional with purely functional purposes arguing instead that genres like assignment prompts course proposals teaching statements and policy documents play a fundamental role in constructing the classroom and the broader pedagogical enterprise within academia Writing the Classroom calls on experienced teachers and faculty administrators to critically consider their own engagement with pedagogical genres and offers graduate students and newer faculty insight into the genres that they may only now be learning to inhabit as they seek to establish their personal teacherly identities It showcases the rhetorical complexity of the genres written in the service of pedagogy not only for students but also for the many other audiences within academia that have a role in shaping the experience of teaching Contributors Michael Albright Lora Arduser Lesley Erin Bartlett Logan Bearden Lindsay Clark Dana Comi Zack K De Piero Matt Dowell Amy Ferdinandt Stolley Mark A Hannah Megan Knight Laura R Micciche Cindy Mooty Dustin Morris Kate Navickas Kate Nesbit Jim Nugent Lori A Ostergaard Cynthia Pengilly Jessica Rivera Mueller Christina Saidy Megan Schoen Virginia Schwarz Christopher Toth The Purposeful Classroom Douglas Fisher, Nancy Frey, 2011-10-25 How can teachers guarantee that what they teach results in students learning what they really need to know In The Purposeful Classroom How to Structure Lessons with Learning Goals in Mind Douglas Fisher and Nancy Frey present

From Mandate to Achievement Elaine Makas, 2009-09-14 This engaging book will guide your journey through the morass of curriculum alignment, development, and assessment. Our school struggled through missteps in curriculum alignment and implementing common assessments without the benefit of Makas' wisdom and experience. I highly recommend this book for teachers, administrators, and interested parents. Robert A. Martin, Leadership Consultant, Oakland Schools, Waterford, MI. Raise schoolwide performance with a systematic teacher-driven approach to curriculum development. Purposeful curriculum design is essential to attaining consistent academic improvement. Educators often find, however, that a viable curriculum based on mandated standards can be exceedingly challenging to create, implement, and sustain. In this book, curriculum consultant Elaine Makas provides a step by step guide to establishing the processes and documents necessary to build a stable, cohesive curriculum system that aligns to educational benchmarks. Based on the DAILY model (Data Alignment, Instructional Pace, Guides, Local Common Assessment, and Yearly Review), this system deconstructs the curriculum process into sequential steps that facilitate the development of instructional priorities, reveal students in need of intervention, and help ensure continuous process improvement. With numerous templates, samples, and reflective exercises, this book clearly demonstrates how to collect and analyze data, identify expectations, and recognize learning gaps. Develop curriculum maps that align with standards and grade-level subject goals. Pace instruction throughout the year according to specific objectives. Create assessments that predict standardized test performance. Conduct yearly improvement reviews and documentation revisions. An essential resource for all schools or districts, whether struggling or successful. From Mandate to Achievement enables K-12 principals, district administrators, curriculum facilitators, and teacher teams to establish a consistent and accurate curriculum process that increases academic achievement and drives continuous school improvement.

The Reading/writing Connection Carol Booth Olson, 2007. This is an especially well-researched and documented text; the author's voice is one that is knowledgeable yet does not intend to intimidate. She speaks to her audience as a dedicated professional. To professional I could only hope that my students would read and retain her words of wisdom.

Anna L. Bolling, California State University Stanislaus: I haven't seen any books that come close to what Carol Olson has developed.
