Moral Hazard Kate Jennings, 2015-09-23 I disapproved of bankers on principle Not that I knew any Until this job I had worked and made friends with people who shared my views Mostly moral mostly kind An unlikely candidate then for the job of executive speechwriter to be putting words in the mouths of plutocrats deeply suspicious of metaphors and words of more than two syllables An unlikely candidate too to be working for a firm whose ethic was borrowed in equal parts from the Marines the CIA and Las Vegas A firm where women were about as welcome as fleas in a sleeping bag Wall Street in the mid 1990s the recession is over and finance companies are gearing up for the next boom Cath wisecracking Australian born bedrock feminist unreconstructed left winger has given up freelance writing for corporate life at one of the big investment banks Her husband Bailey has Alzheimer s and they need serious money For seven years Cath lives in two worlds both of them mad By day she grapples with the twisted logic and outsized egos of high finance By night she witnesses the inexorable decline of the man she loves as ravaged by disease he is reduced to a nub Wise unsentimental and darkly funny Kate Jennings Moral Hazard is a crisp accounting of looming meltdowns financial and personal Kate Jennings was a poet essayist short story writer and novelist Both her novels Snake and Moral Hazard were New York Times Notable Books of the Year and she won the ALS Gold Medal the Christina Stead Prize for Fiction and the Adelaide Festival fiction prize She died in 2021 This is a unique book by an extraordinary writer the great city illuminated from within Kate Jennings brings all her powers of pace and tone to bear in a novel that is humane and unsparing witty unsettling and wildly intelligent I know of no other voice that so conveys the contemporary workplace in its vulnerability and its denaturing and its difficult morality Shirley Hazzard author of The Transit of Venus An engrossing cautionary tale for the twenty first century with unsparing rapier wit Philadelphia Enquirer A work of considerable formal beauty Age The finest novel I ve read this year Don t let its brevity fool you Moral Hazard is a big book in the truest sense of the word Salon com Written in spare and starkly honest prose this novel foreshadows the recent accounting scandals at Enron World Com and other companies and shows that even in the midst of corruption and tragedy individuals can stick to their beliefs Wall Street Journal Jennings is a writer of substance and Moral Hazard is substantial writing Australian Compelling reading Cath s thorny humour adapts well to both terminal illness and terminal greed New York Observer An insider s view of the city without the spin a steely unsentimental vision delivered with a poet s sure touch Bulletin An extraordinary novel pleasurable and powerful mordant and harrowing New Statesman A piercing novel gleaming with facets of hard won knowledge polished by experience and a keen intelligence Publisher s Weekly

A Woman of the Future: Text Classics David Ireland, 2012-11-21 An imaginative tour de force A Woman of the Future is the story of the young life of Anthea Hunt from conception to sexual awakening It is controversial and brilliant and unlike anything else in Australian literature

The Dyehouse Mena Calthorpe, 2016-08-29 Written with unerring skill and insight The Dyehouse is a masterly portrait of postwar Australia when industrial work was radically transformed by new technologies and society changed with it Mena Calthorpe who herself worked in a textile factory takes us inside this world vividly bringing to life the people of an inner Sydney company in the mid 1950s the bosses middlemen and underlings their dramatic struggles and their loves This powerful and affecting novel was first published in 1961 and is the hundredth book in the Text Classics series The new edition comes with an introduction by Fiona McFarlane acclaimed author of The Night Guest Mena Calthorpe was born in Goulburn New South Wales in 1905 and grew up there After marrying Calthorpe moved to Sydney and lived for most of her life in the Sutherland Shire Working in office jobs and writing in her spare time she was active in literary groups and in the Labor Party for some years she was a member of the Communist Party and she opposed B A Santamaria s attempts to stop communism in trade unions The Dyehouse 1961 was followed by The Defectors 1969 which dramatised unions internal power struggles Mena Calthorpe s third and final novel was The Plain of Ala an Irish migrant story which was published in 1989 She died in 1996 The Dyehouse is executed with a singular combination of charm grace and tough mindedness Meanjin The Dyehouse is an extraordinary book a true ensemble novel written with astonishing control and animated by compassionate intelligence With its indelible Sydney setting it deserves more than deserves to take its place among the great Australian novels about work and to be celebrated as the 100th Text Classic Fiona McFarlane A reminder of how rarely these days fiction tackles the world of work that so dominates our lives Worth reading as much for its social history and its understanding of human nature as its rendering of the labour capital clash Australian Vivid fresh and utterly unsentimental Re reading The Dyehouse now I am struck by how technically accomplished it is and how each of its many characters is made distinct and alive with extraordinary economy Calthorpe s own experience of factory and office work provides The Dyehouse with many authentic touches including much detail about the dyeing process but that is not what generates this novel s compelling power What is so remarkable is how it captures and presents a microcosmic world in which the human elements are all parts of a moving whole Sydney Morning Herald The Dyehouse has themes that are as true today as they were at the time of writing Beautifully written Booksellers New Zealand A masterly portrait of post war Australia vividly bringing to life the people of an inner Sydney company in the mid 1950s Womankind The Dyehouse is the perfect novel for the Text Classics centenary It s a shining example of a book we ve never heard of that is very good reading indeed I started reading The Dyehouse last night when I went to bed at 10 o clock I became so absorbed in it that I didn t turn the light out till four o clock in the morning That speaks for itself I think ANZ LitLovers Fresh and lively I really can t recommend this book enough Whispering Gums A fascinating novel of women and work Australian Women s Weekly

Terror and Counter-Terror in Contemporary British Children's Literature Blanka Grzegorzczak, 2020-05-10 The widespread threat of terrorist and counter terrorist violence in the twenty first century has created a globalized context for social interactions transforming the ways in which young people relate to the world around them and to one another This is the first study that reads post 9 11 and 7 7 British writing for the young as a response to this contemporary predicament exploring how children's writers find the means to express the local conditions and different facets of the global wars around terror. The texts examined in this book reveal a preoccupation with overcoming various forms of violence and prejudice faced by certain groups within post-terror Britain as well as a concern with mapping out their social relations with other groups and those concerns are set against the recurring themes of racist paranoia, anti-immigrant hostility, politicized identities and growing up in countries transformed by the effects of terror and counter-terror. The book concentrates on the relationship between postcolonial and critical race studies, Britain's colonial legacy and literary representations of terrorism, tracing thematic and formal similarities in the novels of both established and emerging children's writers such as Elizabeth Laird, Sumia Sukkar, Alan Gibbons, Muhammad Khan, Bali Rai, Nikesh Shukla, Malorie Blackman, Claire McFall, Miriam Halahmy and Sita Brahmachari. In doing so, this study maps new connections for scholars, students and readers of contemporary children's fiction who are interested in how such writing addresses some of the most pressing issues affecting us today, including survival after terror, migration and community building.

Pricing the Priceless Joseph P. Newhouse, 2004-08-20. The health care industry differs from most other industries in that medical pricing is primarily administered by the government and private insurers and in that it uses several types of contracts. Providers may receive a fixed sum for all necessary services within a given period of time for the necessary services to treat a given condition or for each specific service. The industry is changing dramatically, offering many natural experiments to aid understanding of the economics of pricing for health care. In Pricing the Priceless, Joseph Newhouse explains the different pricing systems and how they affect resource allocation and efficiency, focusing on the efficiency of pricing. He also discusses larger issues of equity, fair distribution of burden and social justice. Although most of the examples are American-based, the same issues arise in all medical care financing and delivery systems and the theories and models are general enough to apply to many institutional contexts. The topics include Medicare, managed care, the contemporary integration of health insurance and medical care, the management of moral hazard and stunting uncertainty and risk aversion, the demand for health insurance, agency relationships, information disparities, regulation and supply side and demand side selection.

Economic Foundations of Law Stephen J. Spurr, 2019-02-06. The third edition of Economic Foundations of Law introduces readers to the economic analysis of the major areas of the law: property law, torts, contracts, criminal law, civil procedure, corporation law and financial markets, taxation and labor law. No prior knowledge of law is required, but a prior course in the principles of microeconomics would be quite helpful. The text opens with a review of the basic principles of price theory and an overview of the legal system to ensure readers are equipped with the tools necessary for economic analysis of the law. The third edition provides expanded or new coverage of key topics, including intellectual property law, how the creation of new forms of property rights affects the conservation of species such as elephants and fish, controversies involving liability for medical malpractice and class actions, the transformation of personal injury litigation by the intervention of insurance companies as plaintiffs, how to predict the outcome of litigation with game theory an economic analysis of the ownership and use of guns bankruptcy law and the economics of bank regulation Comprehensive and well written this text is a compelling introduction to law and economics that is accessible to both economics and law students Economic Foundations of Law second edition Stephen J. Spurr, 2010-06-24 Economic Foundations of Law 2nd ed provides an economic analysis of the major areas of the law property law torts contracts criminal law civil procedure corporation law and financial markets taxation and labor law In line with current trends in legal scholarship discussion is focused on economic principles such as risk aversion efficiency opportunity cost moral hazard rent seeking behaviour and economies of scale Accessible comprehensive and well written this book uses extensive practical examples and explanations to illustrate key points There are numerous applications to lawyers and the legal profession with detailed discussions of subjects as diverse as the proposed market for transplantable human organs the market for adoptions the market for bail bonds the unanticipated effects of Megan's law and issues of racial profiling Fully updated and revised a new chapter on labor law has also been included Reaching Tin River Thea Astley, 2018-04-30 Tin River is a townlet of terminal attractiveness Tin River is a state of mind Researching in the archives Belle discovers the long dead Gaden Lockyer a colonial pioneer in Jericho Flats and soon becomes obsessed Belle's quest for Lockyer is her way of coming to terms with the past her mother a drummer in her own all women's group her absent American father and her ineffectual husband Seb In Reaching Tin River Thea Astley's satire is at its sharpest and most entertaining Thea Astley was born in Brisbane in 1925 Her first novel Girl with a Monkey was published in 1958 and her third The Well Dressed Explorer 1962 won the Miles Franklin Literary Award Many notable books followed among them the groundbreaking A Kindness Cup 1974 which addressed frontier massacres of Indigenous Australians and It's Raining in Mango 1987 Her last novel was Drylands 1999 her fourth Miles Franklin winner Her fiction is distinguished by vivid imagery and metaphor a complex ironic style and a desire to highlight oppression and social injustice One of the most distinctive and influential Australian novelists of the twentieth century Astley died in 2004 How lucidly Ms Astley evokes for us Australia's rough pioneer history and Belle's love for it You will like this journey I promise and when it is over you will wish it weren't and you will feel cross and want from Ms Astley much much more New York Times Dazzling imagery on every page Beautifully written Publishers Weekly Intelligent fresh and new Kirkus Reviews Theft of a Nation Gregg Barak, 2012-08-02 Theft of a Nation presents a powerful criminological examination of Wall Street's recent financial meltdown and its profound impact on the rest of the country This provocative book asks why if the actions of key players on Wall Street and in the government resulted in an economic downturn that harmed millions of Americans and destroyed capital worldwide no one was held criminally liable for these actions Author Gregg Barak provides a basic history of financial regulation and deregulation as well as a primer on both securities fraud and mass victimization Using key concepts in victimology and white collar crime he explores the diverse ways civil and criminal law enforcement responded to the damaging behavior on Wall Street The book also assesses Wall

Street Financial Reform and the Consumer Protection Act of 2010 showing the ways that Americans may still be at risk Theft of a Nation is the first comprehensive criminological investigation of the role of Wall Street and the government in the recent financial crisis asking critical questions about who has been victimized and why Australia in Arms Phillip Schuler,2018-04-02 The whole Allied front was barely four miles swept by a terrible inferno of shells The air was filled with the white woolly clouds that the Anzac men old soldiers now knew meant a hail of lead Published soon after the evacuation from Gallipoli Australia in Arms is a vital early account of the Dardanelles campaign The young journalist Philip Schuler later killed in battle witnessed the whole of the August offensive from trenches at Lone Pine He saw the valour of the Anzacs and recognised too the strength of their Turkish opponents Vivid and incisive his book is one of the great achievements of Australian military writing Phillip Schuler born in Melbourne in 1889 is one of Australia s most significant World War I reporters The son of the editor of the Age he volunteered in 1914 to sail to Egypt as the newspaper s war correspondent In 1915 he travelled to Turkey where he was embedded with Anzac soldiers Written on Schuler s return home Australia in Arms was the first full length account of the Australian Imperial Force s Gallipoli offensive By the time it was published in early 1916 Phillip Schuler had enlisted with the AIF He died in 1917 of injuries sustained in the Battle of Messines The best and fullest story yet of the whole Anzac campaign General Sir John Monash Remarkably fresh compelling and dispassionate Mark Baker The Law of Globalization Laurence Boule,2009-01-01 There is a growing clamour particularly from the main beneficiaries of globalization that rules need to be established to govern the international economy with a specific focus on questions such as copyright violations trade sanctions and protections for foreign investment Those who perceive they are disadvantaged by globalization demand other legal protections in relation to employment cultural traditions and the environment A Pentecostal Political Theology for American Renewal Steven M. Studebaker,2016-10-26 This book argues that Christians have a stake in the sustainability and success of core cultural values of the West in general and America in particular Steven M Studebaker considers Western and American decline from a theological and specifically Pentecostal perspective The volume proposes and develops a Pentecostal political theology that can be used to address and reframe Christian political identity in the United States Studebaker asserts that American Christians are currently not properly engaged in preventing America s decline or halting the shifts in its core values The problem he suggests is that American Christianity not only gives little thought to the state of the nation beyond a handful of moral issues like abortion but its popular political theologies lead Christians to think of themselves more as aliens than as citizens This book posits that the proposed Pentecostal political theology would help American Christians view themselves as citizens and better recognize their stake in the renewal of their nation The foundation of this proposed political theology is a pneumatological narrative of renewal a biblical narrative of the Spirit that begins with creation proceeds through Incarnation and Pentecost and culminates in the new creation and everlasting kingdom of God This narrative provides the foundation for a political theology that speaks to the issues of Christian political identity and encourages Christian political participation Place Matters Peter Dreier, John Mollenkopf, Todd Swanstrom, 2014-08-15 How can the United States create the political will to address our major urban problems poverty unemployment crime traffic congestion toxic pollution education energy consumption and housing among others That s the basic question addressed by the new edition of this award winning book Thoroughly revised and updated for its third edition Place Matters examines the major trends and problems shaping our cities and suburbs explores a range of policy solutions to address them and looks closely at the potential political coalitions needed to put the country s urban crisis back on the public agenda The problem of rising inequality is at the center of Place Matters During the past several decades the standard of living for the American middle class has stagnated the number of poor people has reached its highest level since the 1960s and the super rich have dramatically increased their share of the nation s wealth and income At the same time Americans have grown further apart in terms of where they live work and play This trend economic segregation no longer simply reflects the racial segregation between white suburbs and minority cities In cities and suburbs alike poor middle class and wealthy Americans now live in separate geographic spaces The authors have updated the case studies and examples used to illustrate the book s key themes incorporated the latest Census data and drawn on exit polls and other data to examine the voting patterns and outcomes of the 2012 elections They have expanded their discussion of how American cities are influenced by and influence global economic and social forces and how American cities compare with their counterparts in other parts of the world And they draw upon the latest research and case studies not only to examine the negative impacts of income inequality and economic segregation but also assess the efforts that civic and community groups unions business and government are making to tackle them Fully up to date and far richer and more provocative this new version surpasses its previous editions and will continue to be an essential volume for all who study urban politics and care about our cities The Multiple Effects of Rainshadow Thea Astley, 2018-04-30 There are distant shouts rifle shots the pounding of feet across the bridge the sound of running A woman s scream carves the night then bubbles away In 1930 the superintendent of a mission on a Queensland island driven mad by his wife s death goes on a murderous rampage Fearing for their lives the other whites arm a young Indigenous man and order him to shoot Uncle Boss dead The Multiple Effects of Rainshadow traces the lead up to this bloody showdown and the repercussions in the years after for Aboriginal people and the colonial overseers Thea Astley was born in Brisbane in 1925 Her first novel Girl with a Monkey was published in 1958 and her third The Well Dressed Explorer 1962 won the Miles Franklin Literary Award Many notable books followed among them the groundbreaking A Kindness Cup 1974 which addressed frontier massacres of Indigenous Australians and It s Raining in Mango 1987 Her last novel was Drylands 1999 her fourth Miles Franklin winner Her fiction is distinguished by vivid imagery and metaphor a complex ironic style and a desire to highlight oppression and social injustice One of the most distinctive and influential Australian novelists of the twentieth century Astley died in 2004 A lifelong chain smoker famed for her sharp wit Thea Astley died in 2004 the year after her husband died She remains one of the most distinctive and influential Australian novelists of the twentieth century Passion brilliance and originality Sydney Morning Herald Formidable Uniquely provocative acerbic and glittering Australian Corporate Governance 1e Steen Thomsen, Martin Conyon, 2012-04-16 This exciting new text provides a complete introduction to Corporate Governance It deals with the control and direction of companies by boards owners and company law and also looks at the mechanisms of governance and the different governance systems around the world Part 1 is a non technical overview of the relevant theories governance mechanisms and the country models Part 2 looks at some of the most important governance mechanisms in detail Part 3 studies individual international corporate governance systems Part 4 wraps up with a discussion on governance practices A Dutiful Daughter Thomas Keneally, 2019-04-02 Australian literature s strangest novel written by its most familiar novelist The European Union and International Investment Law Francesco Montanaro, 2023-03-23 This book explores the interaction between the EU and international investment law both at the internal level namely within the EU internal market and at the external level i e in the context of its relations with third States The joint treatment of these dimensions reveals that the EU has assumed an ostensibly ambivalent attitude towards international investment law At the internal level it has consistently asserted that intra EU international investment agreements IIAs are not compatible with EU law and advocated their termination At the external level by contrast it has eagerly deployed IIAs to develop its post Lisbon international investment policy The book finds that beneath this apparent ambivalence towards international investment law ultimately lies the EU s attempt to impose both internally and externally its own original model of regulation of cross border investment It then argues that the EU adopted this approach with a view to supporting its internal market enhancing its external influence and ultimately pursuing long term federal aspirations Finally the book identifies the legal and political obstacles that have curtailed the EU s efforts at both the internal and the external level The Visit Amy Witting, 2017-05-01 In The Visit Amy Witting s debut novel first published when she was almost sixty a group of Bangoree residents gather to read plays by Beckett and Brecht But their literary pursuits and their lives take an unexpected turn after it is revealed that the late Roderick Fitzallan set some of his celebrated love poems in their small country town Who is the local mystery woman who inspired Fitzallan s verse all those years ago Amy Witting was born in Annandale an inner suburb of Sydney in 1918 She attended Sydney University then taught French and English in state schools Beginning late in life she published six novels including The Visit I for Isobel Isobel on the Way to the Corner Shop and Maria s War two collections of short stories two books of verse Travel Diary and Beauty Is the Straw and her Collected Poems She had numerous poems and short stories published in magazines such as Quadrant and The New Yorker Witting was awarded the 1993 Patrick White Prize Isobel on the Way to the Corner Shop won the Age Book of the Year Award Amy Witting died in 2001 Her writing is so simple and tough and direct Helen Garner The Regulation of International Trade Michael J. Trebilcock, Robert

Howse, 2005 Fully updated this new edition takes account of the most recent developments in international trade Drawing on the success of the earlier edition it provides a comprehensive introduction to the rules and institutions that govern international trade including competition labor rights the Multilateral Agreement of Investment the Basic Telecoms and Financial Services World Trade Organization WTO Agreements and an analysis of the first three years of WTO dispute rulings Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved
