Mukalel,2003 The book aims at introducing the language teacher in general and the teacher of English in particular to the field of linguistics that should necessarily form the basis of his own understanding of what language is and of his classroom practice generating from this knowledge An understanding of the nature of English as a language as such because essential for the teacher as he begins evolving adequate classroom methodology teaching techniques as well as the large variety of learning experiences that go into the making of what we call effective teaching His own treatment of the classroom situations largely depends on these linguistic specification that are provided to him by the linguist Debating in Teaching and Learning English Ben Wilson,2024-04-18 This book offers the first full length treatment of the topic of debating as a method of developing English Foreign Language EFL speaking inviting scholars and practitioners to reflect on the demands of the current age for moving forward educational practice While debating is a well known method of dialogic speaking and is widely practiced the extent to which it is integrated in adult TEFL has not been established and an understanding of its affordances for developing foreign language speaking is also limited This book fills the gap in the field of TESOL and applied linguistics on the affordances of debating as a form of dialogic speaking that can promote a holistic understanding and improvement of experience of education and indeed academic outcomes The two main themes that situate the work are those of dialogic speaking and affect at times referred to as humanistic positive psychology and social and emotional learning The book details the experiences of an adult EFL debate group in a private language school in the North of Italy It reports how the participants experience the pedagogy so as to offer insights into it as a form of teaching speaking in adult EFL as well as providing a practical framework with lesson plans and curriculum The affordances of debating emerge as being social cognitive educational and communicative and are discussed alongside the work of language teaching scholars Curran and Freire and more broadly within a Social Constructivist approach to education As such debating is discussed as being a holistic and dialogic form of pedagogy Particular attention to experience often affective is also found to be fundamental in planning and assessing educational outcomes for both teachers and learners Trailblazers 2 Teacher's Manual1st Ed. 2006 , Writing and Grammar: Ruby level (11) ,2001 State adopted textbook 2001 2007 grade 11
