Robert G. DelCampo,Kristie M. Boudwin,Sherri L. Hines,2007-12-01 In watching NBC s The Office one can reflect on the common office place interplay and recall their own similar situations in their own work environments How many times has a worker goofed off when the boss is out of the office or played a potentially damaging prank on a co worker Herein lies the inspiration for this book The Office An American Workplace as the pilot episode was originally titled is a humorous and sometimes entirely too accurate portrayal of the American Workplace and therein an ideal demonstration of many topics that are taught in today's business schools Most obviously topics of Organizational Behavior and Human Resource Management are demonstrated but the list does not end there The pedagogical use of The Office is not limited to the examples in this text but only by one's imagination This book sets out to inform OB HR instructors about the entertaining and informative use of The Office for use in their classroom Teaching History with Film Alan S. Marcus, Scott Alan Metzger, Richard J.

Paxton, Jeremy D. Stoddard, 2010-02-25 Visit any school in the United States and chances are that you will find at least one of the social studies teachers showing a film about history Along with the textbook movies are one of the most prominent teaching aids in the history classroom Yet when middle and high school history teachers look for models of the effective use of motion pictures in history classrooms the cupboard is surprisingly bare Teaching History with Film provides a fresh engaging and clear overview of teaching with film to effectively enhance social studies instruction Using cases of experienced teachers to illustrate accomplished history teaching through the use of movies this text provides pre and in service teachers with ideas for implementing film based lessons in their own classrooms and offers a deeper understanding of the thorny issues involved in using film to teach history Each section of the book focuses on how teachers can effectively support the development of students' historical film literacy through topics such as using film to develop historical empathy to develop interpretive skills and to explore controversial issues By developing the skills students need to think critically about the past or what they think they know about history the lessons in this book illustrate how to harness the pedagogical power of film to provide the tools necessary for rigorous inquiry and democratic citizenship Special features include Reflection on the Case following each chapter analyzing and discussing the strengths and limitations of the teacher's approach as well as providing strategies for using and choosing films specific to the educational outcome Sample unit outlines descriptions of class texts and films worksheets essay questions viewer guides and exercises for the classroom throughout Discussion of the practical considerations facing classroom teachers including juggling time restraints issues of parental permission and meeting standards TLA Video & DVD Guide 2004 David Bleiler, 2003-10-24 This is the absolutely indispensable guide to worthwhile cinema It includes over 10 000 entries on the best of film and video that a real film lover might actually want to see

Between the Psyche and the Polis Anne Whitehead, 2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2000

Incorporating studies of Freudian and Marxist approaches to questions of history and memory this timely collection illuminates how history is being refigured in contemporary literary cultural and theoretical studies The contributors to this volume invite the reader to attend to the forms linguistic visual monumental by which a connection with or separation from the past takes place It is current thinking about memory s relationship to history and the ongoing critical reassessment of historicism that preoccupies this collection The volume explores the ways in which current thinking about the past operates within a dialogic space and can be located in relation to multiple perspectives Thus cultural memory can be seen not just as a recent development within the field of cultural studies but as constructing a between space which also draws in aspects of psychoanalysis Similarly trauma theory may usefully be conceptualized as operating in a rich and complex dynamic between deconstruction and the work of Freud Temporality memory and the past are attended to here in terms of the dislocations of narrative of resistances to linear genealogies to aid the reader in making unanticipated connections between theories and cultures and between the demands of the psyche and the polis
