Before the UN Sustainable Development Goals Martin Gutmann, Daniel Gorman, 2022-02-24 Chapter 14 from this book is published open access and free to read or download from Oxford Scholarship Online <https://oxford.universitypressscholarship.com> Before the UN Sustainable Development Goals enables professionals scholars and students engaged with the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs to develop a richer understanding of the legacies and historical complexities of the policy fields behind each goal Each of the seventeen chapters tells the decades or centuries old backstory of one SDG and reveals the global human connections governance tools and frameworks and the actors involved in past efforts to address sustainable development challenges Collectively the seventeen chapters build a historical latticework that reveals the multiple and often interwoven sources that have shaped the challenges later encompassed in the SDGs Engaging and insightfully written the book s chapters are authored by international experts from multiple disciplines The book is an indispensable resource and a vital foundation for understanding the past s indelible footprint on our contemporary sustainable development challenges

The Business and Human Rights Landscape Jena Martin, Karen E. Bravo, 2016 This is the first book offering a comprehensive historical and contemporary analysis of the emerging business and human rights field

The Palgrave Handbook of African Colonial and Postcolonial History Martin S. Shanguhya, Toyin

Falola, 2018-01-28 This wide ranging volume presents the most complete appraisal of modern African history to date It assembles dozens of new and established scholars to tackle the questions and subjects that define the field ranging from the economy the two world wars nationalism decolonization and postcolonial politics to religion development sexuality and the African youth experience Contributors are drawn from numerous fields in African studies including art music literature education and anthropology The themes they cover illustrate the depth of modern African history and the diversity and originality of lenses available for examining it Older themes in the field have been treated to an engaging re assessment while new and emerging themes are situated as the book s core strength The result is a comprehensive vital picture of where the field of modern African history stands today

Nature's Diplomats Raf De Bont, 2021-05-11 Nature s Diplomats explores the development of science based and internationally conceived nature protection in its foundational years before the 1960s the decade when it launched from obscurity onto the global stage Raf De Bont studies a movement while it was still in the making and its groups were still rather small revealing the geographies of the early international preservationist groups their social composition self perception ethos and predilections their ideals and strategies and the natures they sought to preserve By examining international efforts to protect migratory birds the threatened European bison and the mountain gorilla in the interior of the Belgian Congo Nature s Diplomats sheds new light on the launch of major international organizations for nature protection in the aftermath of World War II Additionally it covers how the rise of ecological science the advent of the Cold War and looming decolonization forced a rethinking of approach and rhetoric and how old ideas and practices lingered on It provides much needed historical context for present day convictions about and approaches to the preservation of species and the conservation of natural resources the involvement of local communities in conservation projects the fate of extinct species and vanished habitats and the management of global nature

Facets of Power, 2023-01-10 The diamond fields of Chiadzwa among the world s largest sources of rough diamonds have been at the centre of struggles for power in Zimbabwe since their discovery in 2006 Against the backdrop of a turbulent political economy control of Chiadzwa s diamonds was hotly contested By 2007 a new case of blood diamonds had emerged in which the country s security forces engaged with informal miners and black market dealers in the exploitation of rough diamonds violently disrupting local communities and looting a key national resource The formalisation of diamond mining in 2010 introduced new forms of large scale theft displacement and rights abuses Facets of Power is the first comprehensive account of the emergence meaning and profound impact of Chiadzwa s diamonds Drawing on new fieldwork and published sources the contributors present a graphic and accessibly written narrative of corruption and greed as well as resistance by those who have suffered at the hands of the mineral s secretive and violent beneficiaries If the lessons of resistance have been mostly disheartening ones they also point towards more effective strategies for managing public resources and mounting democratic challenges to elites whose power is sustained by preying on them

British foreign policy and the 'Arab Spring' Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Foreign Affairs Committee, 2012-07-19 Eighteen months since the Arab Spring began there has been extraordinary progress in Egypt Tunisia and Libya Yet many challenges still lie ahead not least the need to support and reform the economies of these Arab Spring states In 2011 the G8 Deauville Partnership identified 38 billion of funding available to support reform The UK must use its leadership in the EU and G8 to ensure that we deliver on our promises The Government needs to learn lessons from its experience in anticipating and handling the Arab Spring Questions arose about the FCO s staffing levels linguistic expertise and information gathering in the Middle East and North Africa region although diplomats understood well the long term problems in the region The report welcomes the Government s recent moves to establish contacts with Islamist parties in the region and calls for deeper engagement to demonstrate at an early stage the UK s support and assistance for democratically elected leaders who respect human rights and democratic reforms The BBC s Arabic Service further highlighted the importance of the BBC World Service in providing an independent news service and enhancing the UK s standing in the region The Committee welcomes the Government s decision to reverse planned cuts to the Arabic Service last year expresses concerns that cuts made elsewhere in the World Service will prove detrimental to the national interest and urges that there be a sustained investment in the World Service The Times Index, January -December 2012 ,2012

Facets of Power Richard Saunders, Tinashe Nyamunda, 2016-04-18 The diamond fields of Chiadzwa among the worlds largest sources of rough diamonds have been at the centre of struggles for power in Zimbabwe since their discovery in 2006 Against the backdrop of a turbulent political economy control of Chiadzwas diamonds was hotly contested By 2007 a new case of blood diamonds had emerged in which the countrys security forces engaged with informal miners and black market dealers in the exploitation of rough diamonds violently disrupting local communities and looting a key national resource The formalisation of diamond mining in 2010 introduced new forms of large scale theft displacement and rights abuses Facets of Power is the first comprehensive account of the emergence meaning and profound impact of Chiadzwas diamonds Drawing on new fieldwork and published sources the contributors present a graphic and accessibly written narrative of corruption and greed as well as resistance by those who have suffered at the hands of the minerals secretive and violent beneficiaries If the lessons of resistance have been mostly disheartening ones they also point towards more effective strategies for managing public resources and mounting democratic challenges to elites whose power is sustained by preying on them

National Park Science Jane Carruthers, 2017-08-17 South Africa is renowned for its wildlife and environmental conservation in iconic national parks such as the Kruger one of the world s first formal protected areas However this is the first book to thoroughly analyse and explain the interesting and changing scientific research that has been accomplished in South Africa s national parks during the twentieth century Providing a fascinating and thorough historical narrative based on an extensive range of sources this text details the evolution of traditional natural history pursuits to modern conservation science in South Africa covering all research areas of conservation biology and all the national parks around the country It reveals the interaction between the international context government learning institutions and the public that has shaped the present conservation arena A complex story that will interest and inform not only those involved in conservation science of South Africa but worldwide A Motorcycle on Hell Run Seth M. Markle,2017-08-01 Between 1964 and 1974 Tanzania came to be regarded as a model nation and a leading frontline state in the struggle for African liberation on the continent and beyond During this time a number of African American and Caribbean nationalists leftists and pan Africanists traveled to and settled in Tanzania to join the country that many believed to be leading Africa s liberation struggle This historical study examines the political landscape of that crucial moment when African American Caribbean and Tanzanian histories overlapped shedding light on the challenges of creating a new nation and the nature of African American and Caribbean participation in Tanzania s nationalist project In examining the pragmatic partnerships and exchanges between socialist Tanzania and activists and organizations associated with the Black Power movements in the United States and the Caribbean this study argues that the Tanzanian one party government actively engaged with the diaspora and sought to utilize its political cultural labor and intellectual capital to further its national building agenda but on its own terms creating tension within the pan Africanism movement An excellent resource for academics and nonacademics alike this work is the first of its kind revealing the significance of the radical political and social movements of Tanzania and what it means for us today Water Wells and Boreholes Bruce Misstear,David Banks,Lewis Clark,2017-02-27 Water Wells and Boreholes focuses on wells that are used for drinking industry agriculture or other supply purposes Other types of wells and boreholes are also covered including boreholes for monitoring groundwater level and groundwater quality This fully revised second edition updates and expands the content of the original book whilst maintaining its practical emphasis The book follows a life cycle approach to water wells from identifying a suitable well site through to successful implementation operation and maintenance of the well to its eventual decommissioning Completely revised and updated throughout Water Wells and Boreholes Second edition is the ideal reference for final year undergraduate students in geology and civil engineering graduate students in hydrogeology civil engineering and environmental sciences research students who use well data in their research professionals in hydrogeology water engineering environmental engineering and geotechnical engineering and aid workers and others involved in well projects Mountains: Physical, Human-Environmental, and Sociocultural Dynamics Mark A. Fonstad,2018-12-07 Mountains have captured the interests and passions of people for thousands of years Today millions of people live within mountain regions and mountain regions are often areas of accelerated environmental change This edited volume highlights new understanding of mountain environments and mountain peoples around the world The understanding of mountain environments and peoples has been a focus of individual researchers for centuries more recently the interest in mountain regions among researchers has been growing rapidly The articles contained within are from a wide spectrum of researchers from different parts of the world who address physical political theoretical social empirical environmental methodological and economic issues focused on the geography of mountains and their inhabitants The articles in this special issue are organized into three themed sections with very loose boundaries between themes 1 physical dynamics of mountain environments 2 coupled human physical dynamics and 3 sociocultural dynamics in mountain regions This book was first published as a special issue of the Annals of the American Association of Geographers Shelter from the Holocaust Mark Edele, Sheila Fitzpatrick, Atina Grossmann, 2017-12-04 This pioneering volume will interest scholars of eastern European history and Holocaust studies as well as those with an interest in refugee and migration issues Congressional Record United States. Congress, 2012
