

Witold Gombrowicz: a minimalist key

Witold Gombrowicz (1895-1969) was a Polish-born writer and philosopher who spent most of his life in Argentina. He is best known for his novel Invocación (1938), which is a key text in his work. The novel is a minimalist key to his thought, exploring the relationship between the individual and the social group. It is a study of the human condition, of the struggle for identity and the search for meaning in a world of chaos and uncertainty. The novel is a masterpiece of modernist literature, and its influence is felt in the work of many other writers.
