 Life through Heaven's Eyes, Part I , Heaven's Call to Earthy Spirituality George McClendon,2008-10 We often live in conflict protecting ourselves from what we do not want Defined and fragmented by our fears we create a familiar predictable safe and painful story One day we may experience a spiritual crisis a turning point where holding on becomes more painful than letting go This is a dangerous opportunity hold on or let go We then face the question Who are we really As I tell my story I invite my readers to recall their own I write about my childhood years defined as a monk discovery of an earthy spirituality and woman good bye to monastic life and life as a displaced person seeking sacred space in the world The new story is what we say after we say good bye to the old story My spiritual practice and the one I describe in Heaven s Call to Earthy Spirituality continues to be a thorough listening and life changing integration When I entered the monastery as a young man in 1953 the abbot renamed each novice after a saint to accompany him on his journey My patron saint was St George From that moment my name was no longer my baptismal name it was George St George slaying the dragon has served as a metaphor in my life and I use it as the framework of the book I was safe as long as I sat on my high horse and avoided contact with Lady Dragon Once I dismounted and met her in earthy environs there was no going back Film
