Title: The Glass Menagerie Author: Tennessee Williams Date of Publication: 1944 (premiere) Genre: Drama, Memory Drama	Biographical information about the author: Williams lived a long and hard life. Born in Mississippi to a once wealthy and prestigious family (once politically successful), they had now collapsed into a shadow of what-has-been). Many of his struggles manifested as components of his key works. He became very close to his sister Rose growing up, who suffered from mental illness and anxiety. It was her that Williams modeled the character "Laura" after from The Glass Menagerie after. Growing up, Williams struggled with success in what his parents deemed and their demand for him to drop out also greatly impacted his life, leaving him at a shoe company doing menial work and not following his own desires, writing and journalism, for another 3 years. This paralleled the struggles that Tom (The Glass Menagerie) also struggled with. These events, as well as his struggles with addiction, mental disease, social repercussions of his homosexuality and other components of his life led to his inclusion of themes of loneliness, depression, thwarted desires and insanity in his numerous works.
Historical information about the period of publication: As the play premiered in 1944, that means that it was written during the beginning of World War II and perhaps even the end of the 1930s, or the period of the Great Depression in the United States, which could have significantly affected the themes, as The Great Depression created a decade of failure, unemployment and isolation, themes that are all present in works by Tennessee Williams. Many events surrounding the period of publication were included in the drama to better emphasize key themes, including the World's Fair and the painting Guernica.	Characteristics of the genre: Drama is the literary genre concerned with the telling of a story through performance. While the dialogue and plot are still pivotal, the playwright has the ability to use many dramatic techniques to further emphasize a theme, better establish a tone or emotion, or drive forward the piece. These include, but are not limited to, stage direction, speed of performance, pauses, and physical movement. Memory dramas, specifically, stem from the memory of a main character, creating the performance as one sees it from memory.
Plot summary: The plot begins with Tom telling us about his family and the life they live, including the lack of father after he left them family many years earlier. The plot of the drama begins as Amanda Wingfield is instructing her children during dinner, seemingly an everyday occurrence, on everything from eating habits to her daughter, Laura, and her inability to find a suitor, as she reminisces about her youth as a southern belle. In the second scene, the audience watches as Amanda confronts Laura about dropping out of her keyboarding class, which Laura refused to tell Amanda about as she did not want to bring her mother shame. Amanda follows with a lecture regarding what will come of her family, while Laura reminds her that Laura is crippled, which Amanda nearly refuses to acknowledge. The third scene watches as Tom has an emotional outburst with Laura about his unhappiness in his job, and unintentionally throws his coat into Laura's glass collection, which brings her pain. Tom is noticeably upset, but remains anger at his mother. In the next scene, mother and son finally make up after Laura cries at breakfast because she believes Tom is unhappy living with them. After breakfast, Amanda tells Tom of her fears that Laura will never find a suitor, and Tom tells her that he will do what he can. This is confirmed in the next scene, after a touching moment where Amanda and Tom bond in the moonlight as Amanda tells Tom that she simply wishes that her children will be successful, and Tom informs her that he has found a caller for Laura. The caller, Jim, is unintentionally Laura's high school crush, a sweet and successful man who plays into Amanda's southern flirtation when he attends dinner with the family. After the power goes out, Jim gets Laura to open up and they dance, inadvertently breaking Laura's favorite glass unicorn, which she is ultimately complacent about. We then learn that Jim is unavailable and will be married soon, after he leaves on good terms with Laura. Amanda's anger erupts on Tom, and their final confrontation ends in his final departure from the home and what held him back.
