1. What concerns did Americans' have about Britain during this time?
  - a. The American's were concerned about the unbalanced tariffs on goods/trade. Americans' were expected to pay the import and export taxes while Britain's main goal was to isolate their trade to only to British. This was to make Britain rich.
2. Why did Madison feel that Washington should be at the convention?
  - a. They would only appoint delegates if Washington attended the convention. Washington's presence was the only one that could give the convention the leverage to create a new government. American's respected him and he could motive a country follow a new form of government.
3. What other problems contributed to Madison's feeling that Americans needed a stronger government?
  - a. Madison writes that the states and their people are in a rebellion, some burning down courthouses, others turning to the torch and sword because of the bad government. Somehow these states need to be unified.
4. How did Madison prepare for the convention?
  - a. Studied many different types of governments (ancient and modern). He found all governments had defects. He planned an idea of government. In this plan the rules of the Articles of Confederation were abolished.
5. What "battles" did Madison anticipate in the convention, even before the first meeting?
  - a. States to ratify the new government plan.
  - b. Smaller states will oppose losing their equal voting in states.
6. What role did George Washington play at the convention?
  - a. He played president of the convention (he presided it)
7. According to the rules of the convention, what was the difference between the "Committee of the whole" and the "General Assembly"?
  - a. Committee of the whole=votes taken will not recorded and not binding. and votes can be changed
  - b. General Assembly: binding votes
8. Why did the convention vote for secrecy?
  - a. For the ability to freely share opinions. Protect the public from distorting their opinions.
9. What were Roger Sherman's and George Mason's criticisms of the Virginia Plan's goal of a large republic? What was Madison's response?
  - a. Sherman said that the articles did not give enough powers to congress, but he did not want to cut into them too deep because the states wouldn't accept them.
10. What primary issue divided the large and small states? Madison said that the time had come to see if America would survive and be a
