Pacific Lady Sharon Sites Adams, Karen J. Coates, 2008-01-01. It was an age without GPS and the Internet without high tech monitoring and instantaneous reporting. And it was a time when women simply didn't do such things. None of this deterred Sharon Sites Adams. In June 1965, Adams made history as the first woman to sail solo from the mainland United States to Hawaii. Four years later, just as Neil Armstrong very publicly stepped onto the moon, the diminutive Adams alone and unobserved finally sighted Point Arguello, California, after seventy-four days sailing a thirty-one foot ketch from Japan across the violent and unpredictable Pacific. She was the first woman to do so, setting another world record. Inspiring and exciting, Adams's memoir recounts the personal path leading to her historic achievements: a tomboy childhood in the Oregon high desert, an early marriage and painful divorce, and a second marriage that ended when her husband died of cancer. In the wake of his death and almost by accident, Adams discovered sailing. Six weeks after her first sailing lesson, she bought a boat and within eight months she set out to achieve her first world record. Pacific Lady recounts the inward journey that paralleled her sailing feats as Adams drew on every scrap of courage and navigational skill she could muster to overcome the seasickness, exhaustion, and loneliness that marked her harrowing crossings.

The Seasons of My Life Jacquelyn Shepard, 2003-02-16. This lively autobiography begins with the gene pool of parents, grandparents, and great grandparents. The author's eventful life proceeds from her birth in 1926 through the Great Depression, evacuation from China as a child, and later, witnessing the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor. After World War II, Jacquelyn, her husband, and two small children lived on a primitive homestead in Canada for one year. Five children later, and forty years old, she was widowed and followed her lifelong dream to see Alaska. Jacquelyn moved to the last frontier in the frozen north and found a husband. Widowed again, she returned to California, earned a Bachelor's Degree, and pursued training as a chaplain. Married a third time, she has made her home in Tuolumne County, California. In entertaining and humorous narration, the author has provided personal vignettes from her interesting siblings and children.
