Madhubani Painting, 2003 The present work contains a brief study of the various facets of Mithila folk arts and paintings which are unique in character having few parallels Of late there has been great talk about this painting the central inspiration of which revolves round popular religious themes and natural surroundings They reflect the self control and serenity of Maithila life and the definite theocratic and aristocratic organizations of Maithila society The women painters of Mithila aimed at giving clear and edifying expression to certain intuitions which formed part of their religion The different forms of floor drawings Aripana and walk paintings bhatti citra provide information on customs and costumes and rituals and religion which otherwise may remain unnoticed The volume further explains in detail the religious and spiritual significance of the folk arts and paintings of Mithila by means of copious references to Sanskrit texts both sacred and secular The paintings as they are constitute not merely a heap of drawings but a visible symbol of aspirations of pious ladies and the throbbings of their hearts in religious fervour A work of inestimable interest both for the specialist and for the connoisseur interested in the study of Indian paintings this comprehensive and authoritative volume on Madhubani painting and other folk arts of Mithila will prove of immense help to students of Indian culture
