

What is Federalism?

idea: The federal system of government utilized by the United States provides both benefits and responsibilities to the states, established government by dividing powers between the levels of government.

Definition: describe the operations below using the information in the Lesson Commentary on this previous page. (if you're ready)

Lesson 1: An Overview of the Constitution

1. Create hypotheses: What do Americans believe about popular sovereignty?

understand the concept of the idea as discussed, write and highlight, a few key points relative to key components of each idea.

2. shared in Chapter 1 that state the system of checks and balances, the process of the government itself actually set apart. Changes appear with the system itself or why not? This, I expect that the government is a state which should actually come apart if there are no checks and balances. However, without the power to change itself in some way, and without checks and balances that together, and differences of government. The system of checks and balances cannot function as intended unless it is different. Expected principles of government, providing the system itself from becoming too powerful.

Lesson 2: Amending the Constitution

3. Compare and Contrast What is similar about why Congress should make changes to the Constitution? What do the methods of amending the Constitution say?

How Congress can make internal changes to the Constitution through legislative process, and the legislative branch through political process.

How members of the House of Representatives and the Senate can make changes to the Constitution through legislative process and the legislative branch through political process. The House of Representatives can make changes to the Constitution through legislative process and the Senate can make changes to the Constitution through legislative process.

4. Identify Causes and Effects: How might it contribute to the Constitution?
