 After staying in Milan for his apprenticeship Michelangelo da Caravaggio arrived in Rome in 1592 There he started to paint with both realism and psychological analysis of the sitters Caravaggio was as temperamental in his painting as in his wild life As he also responded to prestigious Church commissions his dramatic style and his realism were seen as unacceptable Chiaroscuro had existed well before he came on the scene but it was Caravaggio who made the technique definitive darkening the shadows and transfixing the subject in a blinding shaft of light His influence was immense firstly through those who were more or less directly his disciples Famous during his lifetime Caravaggio had a great influence upon Baroque art The Genoese and Neapolitan Schools derived lessons from him and the great movement of Spanish painting in the seventeenth century was connected with these schools In the following generations the best endowed painters oscillated between the lessons of Caravaggio and the Carracci      Caravaggio John Varriano,2010-11-01 In Caravaggio Varriano uncovers the principles and practices that guided Caravaggio s brush as he made some of the most controversial paintings in the history of art He sheds an important new light on these disputes by tracing the autobiographical threads in Caravaggio s paintings framing these within the context of contemporary Italian culture      Caravaggio Sheldon Grossman,1984

1573 1610 Michael Fried offers a transformative account of the artist's revolutionary achievement Based on the A W Mellon Lectures in the Fine Arts delivered at the National Gallery of Art The Moment of Caravaggio displays Fried's unique combination of interpretive brilliance historical seriousness and theoretical sophistication providing sustained and unexpected readings of a wide range of major works from the early Boy Bitten by a Lizard to the late Martyrdom of Saint Ursula The result is an electrifying new perspective on a crucial episode in the history of European painting Focusing on the emergence of the full blown gallery picture in Rome during the last decade of the sixteenth century and the first decades of the seventeenth Fried draws forth an expansive argument one that leads to a radically revisionist account of Caravaggio's relation to the self portrait of the role of extreme violence in his art as epitomized by scenes of decapitation and of the deep structure of his epoch defining realism Fried also gives considerable attention to the art of Caravaggio's great rival Annibale Carracci as well as to the work of Caravaggio's followers including Orazio and Artemisia Gentileschi Bartolomeo Manfredi and Valentin de Boulogne Please note All images in this ebook are presented in black and white and have been reduced in size
