Task 2

Prompt: Now discuss the questions in pairs.

- 1 What can governments do to help the environment?
- 2 What could be done to make schools more eco-friendly?
- 3 What changes could be made in your town or city to make it more eco-friendly?
- 4 Do you think it is important to save endangered animals? Why?
- 5 Are there some parts of the world where tourism shouldn't be allowed?

Sample answers and mark schemes

Can justify and sustain views clearly by providing relevant explanations and arguments.

Task 1

Students A and B

A: Let's start with this one – recycling rubbish. This is very important because we throw too many things away and this causes lots of problems for the environment.

B: I agree. It's really important to reduce the amount of rubbish that we throw away. Recycling is great for the environment, and it can save people money. If you recycle old clothes, other people can use them.

A: That's true. What about cycling or using public transport? That's important, too, isn't it?

B: Yes, I think it's very important. There are too many cars in our towns and cities. They cause a lot of pollution.

A: I agree, and they also make towns and cities less safe for people walking around. But on the other hand, there are some people who need to use their cars, for example people who are old or disabled.

B: Yes, you've got a point there. A lot of people can't cycle or use public transport, so I guess there will always be some cars in our towns and cities. But individuals who are fit can make a difference.

A: Yes, absolutely. What about travelling by train or boat, but not by plane? Do you think individuals can make a difference there?

B: Hmm, I'm not so sure. Of course, travelling by plane is really bad for the environment, but if I decide not to go by plane, the plane will still fly, so I'm not sure it would make much difference.

A: Yes, maybe you're right. But on the other hand, if lots of people decide not to fly, they might reduce the number of planes. It's a difficult one.

B: Yes. What do you think about eating locally produced food? I think that's something that individuals can definitely do.

A: I agree with you. Individuals can make a big difference by supporting farmers and companies that produce food in their area. I'm not so sure about only going on eco-friendly holidays. Not everyone can afford to do that.

B: That's true. They are often more expensive than normal holidays. And what about this last one – never use plastic bags?

A: I definitely think that's something that individuals can do. Plastic bags are so bad for the environment.

B: I know. They can end up in the sea and cause a lot of harm to sea animals.

A: Yes, I agree with you. It's terrible. So, what have we got? I would say either recycling rubbish or never using plastic bags. Those are ways in which all individuals can help the environment. What do you think?

B: Yes, I think perhaps not using plastic bags is perhaps the most important, and it's something that everyone can do easily.

A: Yes, you're right. Let's go for never using plastic bags.
