I Read the article below. Seven sentences have been removed from the article. Choose from the sentences A-H the one which fits each gap (1-7). There is one extra sentence which you do not need to use.

Welcome to the iPod generation

Today is not uncommon to see people – for all I know, you might even be one of them – who live and walk with white, black, blue or pink wire hanging from their ears wherever they go. They move about in their personal bubbles, sometimes unaware of what's happening around them.

(1) _____. Outside life is shut out. Sometimes, rightly so, for environmental distractions can easily prevent them from concentrating on something really important. Of course it doesn't have to be an actual iPod; it could be one of the other mP3 players on the market. So are you with one of them? Or, should I say one of "us"? (2) _____

For introverts like me, walking around in our own personal bubble is perfect. _____ (3). What's even better, wearing earphones seems to give a sign to people who says: "Do not disturb - I'm enjoying myself and am not available for chatting at the moment!" If, for example, I'm strolling along a busy street, and I see someone I'd rather not talk to, I can simply stare into space and pretend I haven't seen them. (4) _____

_____ Of course, I don't like being on the receiving end of this anti-social treatment, but I can't complain.

Now imagine this situation: you're at work and about to make an incredible scientific breakthrough, or you have just come up with an idea that will save the company millions, and your boss suddenly turns up.

(5) _____. Listening to music through earphones is the perfect way to ignore such interruptions. Once again, those white, black, blue or pink wires dangling from your ears would be sure to give that "Go away!" signal.

(6) _____. It's probably part of the growing up stage when they just want to ignore their whole family. Instead of covering their ears and screaming "Yada, yada, yada..." while their mother gives them a lecture about how they should do their homework first before playing their brand new game, they can just turn up the volume on their MP3 player, smile, and say "Yes Mum. Of course, Mum." Problem solved.

Pretty soon, not only will we have pretty coloured wires dangling from our ears – even better, our brains will be directly plugged into some new high-tech device, and we'll be in a virtual world, interacting with everyone else, or choosing not to, as we like.

(7) _____. The truth is that our devices are changing so quickly, and invading our personal lives at such an alarming rate, that they are changing our social habits along the way.

In the end, there is a thin line between using technology as a tool for making life easier and better and being a slave to it! It's so strange – suddenly, I don't feel like wearing my earphones anymore!
