The Great Gatsby meets Alain Badiou Ursula Vooght, 2023-12-21 The subject of this book is a consideration of the usefulness of the concept of fidelity put forward by the philosopher Alain Badiou in the discussion of film adaptation Fidelity or faithfulness is primarily a consideration that emerges in relation to so called canonical texts in adaptation Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby occupies a position of global recognisability and within the United States cultural mythology that has triggered strong reactions to the four Hollywood adaptations. The various adaptations allow for the differing approaches to the adaptation of this novel to be meaningfully explored. The film adaptations' paratextual elements will be discussed in order to show how these acted as limiting lenses. The strategies of the films for handling elements of Fitzgerald's prose and themes will be compared across the adaptations. This will culminate in an assertion of the worth of a larger application of a Badiouian fidelity within the field.

Teaching Literature to Adolescents Alan B. Howes, 1972 Representations of Gender and Class in "The Great Gatsby". An Analysis of the Movie Adaptations of 1974 and 2013 Matthias Köbrich, 2016-12-12 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2014 in the subject Film Science grade 1-3 Friedrich Alexander University Erlangen Nuremberg American Studies language English abstract A tendency in the realm of gender studies has been to mainly concern oneself with gender whereas the same can be claimed in terms of class analysis showing a tendency towards primarily and exclusively dealing with class. This study tries to combine both fields in an attempt to not only expose how present forms of masculinity are established but also how these forms interact with class. In addition to Crenshaw's intersectionality theory Pyke's concept of interpersonal power and Connell's theory of hegemonic masculinity will be dealt with. The synergy between masculinity and class will be scrutinized by means of two movie adaptations of The Great Gatsby 1974 2013. It will be shown that factors such as social and geographical mobility career and the need or ability to display class marked objects as well as the male body can be identified as producing and helping to maintain multiple forms of class based masculinity as well as shaping and changing these masculinities.

Race to the Bottom Michael V. McGill, 2015-04-03 How did the country that invented the modern public school end up embracing policies that weaken it? What alternatives are there to current corporate reform policies? How can we give America's children an education that will truly prepare them and our nation for the challenges of tomorrow? In Race to the Bottom McGill successfully traces the emergence of corporate reform and describes how its tenets run counter to what he believes are the key elements of a high quality education. McGill draws from a wealth of experience as a school superintendent for over 40 years including his tenure in Scarsdale during the 2001 district wide boycott of New York State standardized tests. Showing how strong leaders working with teachers and the community have been able to strengthen schools the author offers a model of school reform that will prepare students for the 21st Century.
