Building a Website: Designing a Website Page with CSS

1. Designing a Website Page with CSS

The first design decision you make is whether to use a template or a custom design. A template is a pre-designed page layout that you can modify to suit your needs. A custom design is a page layout that you create from scratch.

This document is a template. It is designed to be used as a starting point for your website. It is a simple design that is easy to modify. It is a good starting point for a website that is not too complex. It is a good starting point for a website that is not too large. It is a good starting point for a website that is not too expensive. It is a good starting point for a website that is not too difficult to build.

The second design decision you make is whether to use a template or a custom design. A template is a pre-designed page layout that you can modify to suit your needs. A custom design is a page layout that you create from scratch.

2. Designing a Website Page with CSS

The third design decision you make is whether to use a template or a custom design. A template is a pre-designed page layout that you can modify to suit your needs. A custom design is a page layout that you create from scratch.
