Amazonian Cosmopolitans Suzanne Oakdale, 2022-02 Amazonian Cosmopolitans explores how two Kawaiwete Indigenous leaders Sabino and Prepori lived in a much more complicated and globally connected Amazon than most people realize

The Lowland South American World Casey High, Luiz Costa, 2024-12-12 The Lowland South American World showcases cutting edge research on the anthropology of Lowland South America providing both an in depth knowledge of Lowland South American life ways and engaging readers in urgent social environmental and political issues in the contemporary world Covering the vast expanse of a region that includes all of South America except for the Andes its 40 chapters engage with questions of what Lowland South America means as a geographical designation both in studies of Indigenous Amazonian peoples and other lowland areas of the continent They emphasize the multiple ways that local practices and cosmologies challenge conventional Western ideas about nature culture personhood sociality community and Indigenous people Some of the region s well known contributions to anthropology such as animism perspectivism and novel approaches to the body are updated here with new ethnography and in light of the varying political situations in which the region's peoples find themselves. With contributions by authors from 15 different countries including a number of Indigenous anthropologists and activists, this book will set the agenda for future research in the continent. The Lowland South American World is a valuable resource for scholars and students of anthropology, Latin American studies and Indigenous studies as well as history, geography and other social sciences.

Remaking Kichwa Michael Wroblewski, 2021-01-28 Investigating the efforts of the Kichwa of Tena, Ecuador, to reverse language shift to Spanish, this book examines the ways in which Indigenous language can be revitalized and how creative bilingual forms of discourse can reshape the identities and futures of local populations. Based on deep ethnographic fieldwork among urban, periurban and rural Indigenous Kichwa communities, Michael Wroblewski explores adaptations to culture contact, language revitalization and political mobilization through discourse. Expanding the ethnographic picture of native Amazonians and their traditional discourse practices, this book focuses attention on Kichwa's diverse engagements with rural and urban ways of living, local and global ways of speaking and Indigenous and dominant intellectual traditions. Wroblewski reveals the composite nature of Indigenous words and worlds through conversational interviews, oral history narratives, political speechmaking and urban performance media, showing how discourse is a critical focal point for studying cultural adaptation. Highlighting how Kichwa assert autonomy through creative forms of self-representation, Remaking Kichwa moves the study of Indigenous language into the globalized era and offers innovative reconsiderations of Indigeneity, discourse and identity.

Thunder Shaman Ana Mariella Bacigalupo, 2016-05-17 As a wild drumming thunder shaman, a warrior mounted on her spirit horse, Francisca Kolipi's spirit traveled to other historical times and places, gaining the power and knowledge to conduct spiritual warfare against her community's enemies, including forestry companies and settlers. As a civilized shaman, Francisca narrated the Mapuche people's attachment to their local sacred landscapes, which are themselves imbued with shamanic power and constructed nonlinear histories of intra and interethnic relations that created a moral order in which Mapuche become history's spiritual victors. Thunder Shaman represents an extraordinary collaboration between Francisca Kolipi and anthropologist Ana Mariella Bacigalupo, who became Kolipi's granddaughter, trusted helper and agent in a mission of historical reconstruction and myth-making. The book describes Francisca's life, death and expected rebirth and shows how she remade history through multitemporal dreams, visions and spirit possession, drawing on ancestral beings and forest spirits as historical agents to obliterate state ideologies and the colonialist usurpation of Indigenous lands. Both an academic text and a powerful ritual object intended to be an agent in shamanic history, Thunder Shaman functions simultaneously as a shamanic bible embodying Francisca's power, will and spirit long after her death in 1996 and an insightful study of shamanic historical consciousness in which biography, spirituality, politics, ecology and the past, present and future are inextricably linked. It demonstrates how shamans are constituted by historical, political and ecological events while they also actively create history itself through representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers Art Effects Carlos Fausto,2020-08 In Art Effects Brazilian anthropologist Carlos Fausto explores the agency of indigenous artifacts and images in order to offer a new understanding of the pragmatics and ontology of ritual contexts Creating Dialogues Hanne Veber,Pirjo Virtanen,2017-07-21 Creating Dialogues discusses contemporary forms of leadership in a variety of Amazonian indigenous groups Examining the creation of indigenous leaders as political subjects in the context of contemporary state policies of democratization and exploitation of natural resources the book addresses issues of resilience and adaptation at the level of local community politics in lowland South America Contributors investigate how indigenous peoples perceive themselves as incorporated into the structures of states and how they tend to see the states as accomplices of the private companies and non indigenous settlers who colonize or devastate indigenous lands Adapting to the impacts of changing political and economic environments leaders adopt new organizational forms participate in electoral processes become adept in the use of social media experiment with cultural revitalization and new forms of performance designed to reach non indigenous publics and find allies in support of indigenous and human rights claims to secure indigenous territories and conditions for survival Through these multiple transformations the new styles and manners of leadership are embedded in indigenous notions of power and authority whose shifting trajectories predate contemporary political conjunctures Despite the democratization of many Latin American countries and international attention to human rights efforts indigenous participation in political arenas is still peripheral Creating Dialogues sheds light on dramatic ongoing social and political changes within Amazonian indigenous groups The volume will be of interest to students and scholars of anthropology ethnology Latin American studies and indigenous studies as well as governmental and nongovernmental organizations working with Amazonian groups Contributors Jean Pierre Chaumeil G rard Collomb Luiz Costa Oscar Espinosa Esther L pez Val ria Macedo Jos Pimenta Juan Pablo Sarmiento Barletti Terence Turner Hanne Veber Pirjo Kristiina Virtanen Performing Indigeneity Laura R. Graham,H. Glenn Penny,2014-12-01 This engaging collection of essays discusses the complexities of being indigenous in public spaces Laura R Graham and H Glenn Penny bring together a set of highly recognized junior and senior scholars including indigenous scholars from a variety of fields to provoke critical thinking about the many ways in which individuals and social groups construct and display unique identities around the world The case studies in Performing Indigeneity underscore the social historical and immediate contextual factors at play when indigenous people make decisions about when how why and who can be indigenous in public spaces Performing Indigeneity invites readers to consider how groups and individuals think about performance and display and focuses attention on the ways that public spheres both indigenous and nonindigenous ones have received these performances The essays demonstrate that performance and display are essential to the creation and persistence of indigeneity while also presenting the conundrum that in many cases indigeneity excludes some of the voices or identities that the category purports to represent
