JCPenney [catalog], 2008 New Jersey Register, 2007 Transport and accessibility to public services Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Environmental Audit Committee, 2013-06-24 This report looks at progress on improving accessibility since 2003 and ways of improving accessibility Problems with transport provision and the location of services can reinforce social exclusion by preventing people from accessing key local services and undermines government policies to tackle worklessness increase participation in education reduce crime and narrow health inequalities Insufficient progress has been made since the 2003 Social Exclusion Unit's Making the Connections report many findings of which are relevant today There is evidence that accessibility is worsening driven by tight budgets in central and local government Accessibility statistics show travel times to key services steadily increasing over time particularly for access to hospitals The Department for Transport needs to focus more closely on improving accessibility as well as on supporting the economy Existing transport funding could be better coordinated and directed to accessibility focused initiatives which will have a swifter impact on people's well being than large infrastructure projects The social value of transport and accessibility needs to be explicitly considered in policy making and in the planning system and should no longer be seen as a second order criterion The Committee believes it will take time for any improvements to make a noticeable difference Their recommendations focus on improving how government operates rather than funding Central government cannot abdicate its role in coordinating action across departmental silos and helping local authorities and service providers to share best practice Accessibility planning introduced by Making the Connections has had limited success and needs to be re energised

Commerce Business Daily, 1997-12-31 Remote and Hybrid Work Barbara Z. Larson, 2024 In Remote and Hybrid Work What Everyone Needs to Know R long time remote work scholar and consultant Barbara Z Larson provides an accessible and critical resource for understanding the remote and virtual workplace and how to lead in this new work environment Remote and hybrid work have become defining features of the twenty first century workplace and affect almost all of us including those who work daily in the office As many people discover the benefits and challenges of working from home co workers are contending with emptier offices and virtual teams managers are learning how to lead from a distance and businesses and governments are working through the policy implications of a new model of work In Remote and Hybrid Work What Everyone Needs to Know R Barbara Z Larson addresses key questions regarding the contemporary workplace what is the difference between virtual work and remote work How common is remote work and what changed due to the COVID 19 pandemic Is there a particular type of person who is better suited for remote work What are the effects of using technology to monitor remote workers What are the societal benefits and costs of remote work What has happened to companies that have tried to go fully remote with no offices at all Larson looks carefully into the challenges and opportunities that people and companies face today as work changes Chapters address the issues that vital stakeholders experience in remote work environments including the remote worker remote teams managers of remote workers and companies with remote workforces Larson also incorporates real world examples to illustrate key points and demonstrate best practices Readers will learn from more than thirty years of extensive research by scholars in the areas of applied psychology organizational behavior computer mediated communication and organizational economics Remote and Hybrid Work What Everyone Needs to Know R is a critical resource for understanding this new model of work Social Security Advisory Committee Great Britain. concerns about that programme The Committee further recognises that there is likely to be a significant increased demand for advice services during the four year transition to Universal Credit The report also comments on closely related policy areas including the conditionality and sanctions regime passported benefits localisation of council tax support localisation of the Social Fund [J.C.
