We Were Adivasis Megan Moodie, 2015-08-20 In We Were Adivasis anthropologist Megan Moodie examines the Indian state s relationship to Scheduled Tribes or adivasis historically oppressed groups that are now entitled to affirmative action quotas in educational and political institutions Through a deep ethnography of the Dhanka in Jaipur Moodie brings readers inside the creative imaginative work of these long marginalized tribal communities She shows how they must simultaneously affirm and refute their tribal status on a range of levels from domestic interactions to historical representation by relegating their status to the past we were adivasis Moodie takes readers to a diversity of settings including households tribal council meetings and wedding festivals to reveal the aspirations that are expressed in each Crucially she demonstrates how such aspiration and identity building are strongly gendered requiring different dispositions required of men and women in the pursuit of collective social uplift The Dhanka strategy for occupying the role of adivasi in urban India comes at a cost young women must relinquish dreams of education and employment in favor of community sanctioned marriage and domestic life Ultimately We Were Adivasis explores how such groups negotiate their pasts to articulate different visions of a yet uncertain future in the increasingly liberalized world Understanding World Media Dr Kumar Kaustubha, Dr Ajitabh & Mudita Agnihotri Sant, 2021-08-14 Understanding World Media sets out to mirror world media and the freedom it enjoyed across the globe in about 200 countries While media is an important part of academic research concerns have been raised globally on its content intent and freedom of expression To the extent that even as per the data compiled by Reporters Without Borders democratic India ranks below par at 138 in the World Press Freedom Index 2018 out of the 180 listed nations Though it is a question of debate and discussions to what extent media in India is considered free or under censorship When India is emerging as a global power with over 55 percent of its population is under 35 years of age interest in the world community and media is growing leaps and bounds It is in this context that this book magnifies its mirror to bring facts about the status and understanding of media in the world For any book like this it will always have its challenges to cover subjects like media in a nutshell but for today this book is timely and relevant It is a balanced and thoughtful effort to present such a comprehensive book in a crisp and concise manner as it is difficult to get experts on various countries to write on their respective domains We have put our utmost effort to consolidate all necessary information and analysis required for this collection and we are very hopeful that it will serve its purpose fulfill the void and information gap about the world media Understanding World Media is structured around two clear themes the status of media in various countries and its freedom of expression It is divided into five parts covering vast geographical areas in Asia Europe the Americas Africa and Australia Oceania Mass Communication in India, Fifth Edition Keval J. Kumar, 2020-12-10 Third Completely Revised and Updated Edition Mass Communication in India is a result of the author's in depth study and understanding of the media The book deals with a general introduction to Communication Theory Advertising Television Effects of Media and Development In short the book is designed to give the student of Mass Communication a general and comprehensive view of the modern and traditional media in India It meets the objective of being a text book as well as a book that gives an overview of mass communication in India India Calling, 1957 THE INDIAN LISTENER All India Radio (AIR), New Delhi, 1944-10-07 The Indian Listener fortnightly programme journal of AIR in English published by The Indian State Broadcasting Service Bombay started on 22 December 1935 and was the successor to the Indian Radio Times in English which was published beginning in July 16 of 1927 From 22 August 1937 onwards it was published by All India Radio New Delhi In 1950 it was turned into a weekly journal Later The Indian listener became Akashvani in January 5 1958 It was made a fortnightly again on July 1 1983 It used to serve the listener as a Bradshaw of broadcasting and give listener the useful information in an interesting manner about programmes who writes them take part in them and produce them along with photographs of performing artists It also contains the information of major changes in
