The Merck Manual Seventeenth Edition , The Merck Manual of Diagnosis and Therapy Robert Berkow,1982-01-01 Provides up to date medical information to facilitate accurate diagnosis and effective treatment of diseases and disorders

Internet Resources For Nurses Joyce J. Fitzpatrick,2003 This new edition of the award winning guide to the web for nurses is nearly double in size and twice as useful Expert nurses in more than 50 content areas have carefully selected and reviewed nearly 400 web sites available in their specialty areas resulting in an authoritative guide to the best the web has to offer for the professional nurse Each web description includes a summary of the site intended audience sponsor level of information and relevance to nurses The book also indicates sites which can be referred to patients

Doctorinternet Chadd Everone,2001 Doctor Internet is an essential reference for any person who wants to be more actively involved in his or her own medical care Millions of people both patients and professionals are beginning to use the Internet for researching health and medicine

Crop Spraying and the Health of Residents and Bystanders Great Britain. Royal Commission on Environmental Pollution,2007 This report addresses a complex and controversial issue the human health risks associated with the use of agricultural pesticides Some people are extremely concerned about their potential exposure to pesticides arising because they occupy properties adjacent to farmland or because they have or have had access to such land for example when using footpaths The official position in the UK in response to these concerns has been that a robust approach to the assessment of human health risks associated with pesticide exposure already exists and that there is no scientific case for taking additional measures such as the introduction of no spray buffer zones to protect members of the public who may be in the vicinity of a sprayed area But those who consider themselves to be adversely affected by pesticide spraying have not been reassured and have continued to campaign for the adoption of more precautionary measures

The Internet for Orthopaedists Don Johnson,Myles Clough,2006-05-11 This text focuses on the Internet needs of orthopaedic surgeons It educates them on how to use the web in their day to day practice Topics covered in depth include quick access to the Internet the history of the Internet terminology hardware and software search engines e mail CME browsers mailing lists medical informatics and creating web pages An extensive list of annotated orthopaedic specific Internet sites are also included This unique compilation of orthopaedic specific information forms an invaluable resource for every orthopaedic surgeon wishing to make effective and efficient use of the Internet in his her practice

The Internet for Physicians Roger P. Smith,2006-04-12 Like the Internet itself interest in computing both local and distant has grown exponentially The rapidly changing role of the Internet has resulted in three very different editions of The Internet for Physicians The first edition attempted to introduce the concept of information transfer and communication and point the way toward a tool of the future The second edition attempted to assuage trepidation in the use of this emerging tool and suggest the why and wherefore of being connected The needs that drove those goals have almost completely disappeared As a result the bulk of this edition is more focused on the medical aspect of the Internet and its use and less on the nuts and bolts of connecting and communication through the Web It has been revamped reorganized and expanded to include 30% more content and 90 new illustrations New to the third edition is an entire section dedicated to Medicine and the Web with chapters discussing patient education and information what your patients are seeing on the web finding quality resources including clinical trial and evidence based medicine sites how to search and use PubMed telemedicine continuing medical education medical literature and informatics applications of on line journals and submissions and much more
