

Background to Gandhi

South Africa

- India and South Africa were British colonies – much like Canada was
- Indians had been brought to South Africa by the British as labourers and merchants
- They were set apart as “coloureds” and given more privileges than blacks but fewer privileges than whites
- e.g. they could not ride in 1st class train compartments

Gandhi

- Educated in London – became a lawyer there
- He was not aware of the social conditions in South Africa until he moved there to take a job at an Indian law firm
- South Africa was where he first used the tactics of civil disobedience

India

- Britain ruled India from 1858 to 1947
- Society was strictly segregated into castes for hundreds of years before British rule
- The two main religious groups in India are the Hindus and Muslims
- There were tensions and hostility between these 2 groups before British rule
- The British actually encouraged this hostility since they believed it would prevent all Indians from uniting against Britain
- This was actually a policy known as “Divide and Rule”
- For centuries, spinning cloth had been a cottage industry in India – families spun cloth for their own clothes and made money selling leftover cloth
- This ended with British rule and the invention of the power loom
- All spinning was done in Britain in large factories and this drained wealth from India on Becoming A Language Educator Christine Pears Casanave, Sandra R. Schecter, 2012-11-12 These personal essays by first and second language researchers and practitioners reflect on issues events and people in their lives that helped them carve out their career paths or clarify an important dimension of their missions as educators Their narratives depict the ways in which professionals from diverse backgrounds and work settings have grappled with issues in language education that concern all of us the sources and development of beliefs about language and education the constructing of a professional identity in the face of ethical and ideological dilemmas and the constraints and inspirations of teaching and learning environments They have come together as a collective to engage in a courageous new form of academic discourse one with the potential to change the field Many of the authors write their stories of having begun their work with voices positioned at the margins Now as established professionals they feel strong enough collectively to risk the telling and through their telling to encourage other voices This volume is intended to provide graduate students teachers and researchers in language education with insights into the struggles that characterize the professional development of language educators Both readers and contributors should use the stories to view their own professional lives from fresh perspectives and be inspired to reflect in new ways on the ideological ethical and philosophical underpinnings of their professional personae

Great Flicks Dr. Dean Keith Simonton, 2011-02-23 What does it take to make a great motion picture What do we even mean by cinematic greatness What is more important movie awards critical acclaim or box office success Who has the biggest impact the writer the director or the actors Scientific research has provided some provocative answers This review of cinematic creativity and aesthetics is confined to scientific studies carried out by a multidisciplinary group of researchers Do great films receive both shiny trophies and five stars Chapter 2 concentrates on movie awards including the Oscars and Golden Globes and how those awards relate to critical acclaim How do the dramatic awards compare with the visual technical and music awards Chapter 3 studies more closely how these awards cluster together and which of these clusters best predict cinematic success How does box office compare with critical evaluations and movie awards Chapter 4 adds a new consideration namely the film's financial performance The following four chapters focus on specific contributions to a film's impact Chapter 5 covers the script including writers Chapter 6 the director or auteur Chapter 7 the actors especially gender differences and Chapter 8 the music both scores and songs Chapter 9 addresses the question of whether the same cinematic factors that make some films great also make other films bad Are bombs the exact opposite of masterpieces The book closes with an epilogue on future directions in scientific studies of cinematic creativity and aesthetics What do researchers need to do if we want a complete understanding of what it takes to create a powerful cinematic experience This volume will be invaluable to anyone interested in film including any aficionado who is open to a scientific approach and researchers in the areas of creativity aesthetics and cultural economics The reported research comes from many disciplines including psychology sociology economics management marketing communications journalism broadcasting history musicology and statistics
