

OUR KINGDOM MINISTRY

MARCH 2014

WEEK STARTING MARCH 10

Song 1 and Prayer

☐ Congregation Bible Study:

cf chap. 4 ¶1-9 (30 min.)

☐ Theocratic Ministry School:

Bible reading: Genesis 40-42 (10 min.)

No. 1: Genesis 41:1-16 (4 min. or less)

No. 2: How Do the Rest of the Dead Come to Life on Earth?—rs p. 338 ¶2—p. 339 ¶2 (5 min.)

No. 3: Abihu—Prominence Does Not Excuse Disobedience—if-1 p. 22 (5 min.)

☐ Service Meeting:

Song 88

15 min: Family Worship That Refreshes. Interview a family regarding their family worship. Of what does their program consist? How do they determine what to discuss? What tools available on jw.org have they used? How has their program helped them in the ministry? How do they prevent other activities from disrupting their schedule? How have they benefited from their program of family worship?

15 min: “Improving Our Skills in the Ministry—Responding to Potential Conversation Stoppers.” Discussion. Consider two or three potential conversation stoppers that publishers may encounter, and invite comments on how we might respond. Remind publishers that they will have an opportunity to relate experiences during the week of April 7.

Song 97 and Prayer

Improving Our Skills in the Ministry—Responding to Potential Conversation Stoppers

Why Important: Imagine that you know that a natural disaster is imminent. People will die unless they flee to safety. You go to a neighbor’s home to warn him, but he interrupts you, saying that he is busy. Surely, you would not quickly abandon your efforts to help him! Many in our territory turn us away, not realizing the life-saving value of our message. At the time of our visit, perhaps they are preoccupied. (Matt. 24:37-39) Or maybe they have been prejudiced by untrue rumors. (Matt. 11:18, 19) They might assume that we are no different from the religions that have produced bad fruitage. (2 Pet. 2:1, 2) If the householder initially is not interested, we should not be quick to give up.

How to Do It:

- Before preaching from house to house, take a few moments to think about potential conversation stoppers that you may encounter and consider how to respond.
- If the householder presents an objection, gently try to continue the conversation. Perhaps you can do that by commending him. For example, if he says that he has his own religion, you might reply, “I was hoping to find someone like you who has an interest in spiritual things.” Sometimes acknowledging the householder’s feelings or circumstances will enable you to continue giving a witness. For instance, if he says that he is busy, you might say: “I understand. But before I leave, I would like to give you this.” Another option is to ask a question if the householder says that he is not interested. You could say, “Do you mean that you are not interested in the Bible, or is it religion in general that does not interest you?”
- Use good judgment. Remember that Jehovah does not force people to listen. (Deut. 30:19) Everyone must carry his own load of spiritual responsibility. (Gal. 6:5) If the householder is adamant, it is best to take our leave. By demonstrating respect for his feelings, we may open the door for another publisher to give a witness in the future. —1 Pet. 3:15.

Try This During the Month:

- When you encounter a potential conversation stopper, after leaving the householder, discuss with your partner how you might have responded in a better way.

depth of contemporary work in the field and shows readers important future directions for scholarship Among the emerging topics covered in the handbook are biological functioning organizational innovation digital religion spirituality atheism and transnationalism The relationship of religion to other significant social institutions like work and entrepreneurship science and sport is also analyzed Specific attention is paid where appropriate to international issues as well as to race class sexuality and gender differences This handbook includes 27 chapters by a distinguished diverse and international collection of experts organized into 6 major sections religion and social institutions religious organization family life course and individual change difference and inequality political and legal processes and globalization and transnationalism States, Debt, and Power Kenneth Dyson, 2014-06-19 States Debt and Power argues for the importance of situating our contextually influenced thinking about European states and debt within a commitment to historically informed and critical analysis It teases out certain broad historical patterns The book also examines the inescapably difficult and contentious judgements about bad and good debt about what constitutes sustainable debt and about distributive justice at times of sovereign debt crisis These judgements offer insight into the nature of power and the contingent nature of sovereign creditworthiness Three themes weave through the book the significance of creditor debtor state relations in defining asymmetry of power the context specific and constructed character of debt above all in relation to war and the limitations of formal economic reasoning in the face of radical uncertainty Part I examines case studies from Ancient Greece to the modern Euro Area and brings together a wealth of historical data that cast fresh light on how sovereign debt problems are debated and addressed Part II looks at the conditioning and constraining framework of law culture and ideology and their relationship to the use of policy instruments Part III shows how the problems of matching the assumption of liability with the exercise of control are rooted in external trade and financial imbalances and external debt in financial markets and vulnerability to banking crisis in the character of the private governance of public debt in who has power over indicators of sustainability in domestic institutional and political arrangements and in sub national fiscal governance Part IV looks at how the problems of mismatch between liability and control take on an acute form within the historical context of European monetary union above all in Euro Area debt crises

Herald and Presbyter, 1901 Teaching Human Rights in Primary Schools Alison E. C. Struthers, 2019-11-07 Teaching Human Rights in Primary Schools delves into the important issue of Human Rights Education HRE implementation exploring the nature and extent of HRE in education policy and practice in English primary schooling and seeking to understand the reasons for deficiencies in practice in this area HRE enables people not only to identify rights violations in their own lives but also equips them with the knowledge values and skills required to accept defend and promote human rights more broadly An awareness of human rights is therefore crucial no matter what a person's age and as such it is vital that information about human rights is included within formal education Beginning with an overview of the relevant international obligations and agreements related to HRE Struthers then demonstrates that these are ostensibly not currently being met in either policy or practice in England The book then draws upon current literature and empirical research with teachers to explore and analyse the barriers to HRE implementation While the book uses the specific context of English primary education it makes broad interdisciplinary recommendations concerning how the provision of HRE could be improved which will be relevant to other countries instituting programmes of HRE or values and citizenship education Interdisciplinary in nature and addressing HRE at both the international and domestic levels this book will be of great interest to scholars researchers and postgraduate students in both education and law It will be of particular interest to those engaged in the study of human rights children s rights and education law as well as those interested in curriculum policy and development teaching methodologies and the sociology of education It should also be essential reading for teacher educators teachers and policymakers

Dissent on the Margins Emily B. Baran,2014 Emily B Baran offers a gripping history of how a small American based religious community the Jehovah s Witnesses found its way into the Soviet Union after World War II survived decades of brutal persecution and emerged as one of the region s fastest growing religions after the Soviet Union s collapse in 1991 In telling the story of this often misunderstood faith Baran explores the shifting boundaries of religious dissent non conformity and human rights in the Soviet Union and its successor states Soviet Jehovah s Witnesses are a fascinating case study of dissent beyond urban intellectual nonconformists Witnesses who were generally rural poorly educated and utterly marginalized from society resisted state pressure to conform They instead constructed alternative communities based on adherence to religious principles established by the Witnesses international center in Brooklyn New York The Soviet state considered Witnesses to be the most reactionary of all underground religious movements and used extraordinary measures to try to eliminate this threat Yet Witnesses survived while the Soviet system did not After 1991 they faced continuing challenges to their right to practice their faith in post Soviet states as these states struggled to reconcile the proper limits on freedom of conscience with European norms and domestic concerns Dissent on the Margins provides a new and important perspective on one of America s most understudied religious movements
