Kalafong Nursing College:

Fanie Fourie's Lobola Nape 'a Motana, 2014-08-01 Fanie Fourie is a true blue boere seun with an unrepentantly macho approach to love and life in general But his world view undergoes an abrupt reinvention when he is bitten by the louse and bedbug of love and falls head over heels for Dimakatjo Machabaphala a beautiful black nurse In pursuit of true love these lovers must steer a path through the challenging intricacies of inter cultural negotiation and leap the hurdles of racial bigotry tenacious former lovers and the like finally to emerge triumphant as traditionally united man and wife This delightful novel is filled with naughty humor and ironic reversals of stereotype With a deft and humorous pen the author evokes the colliding worlds of traditional and contemporary culture in a South Africa still struggling to renegotiate roles and relationships and shake off the complexes and prejudices of the past

Merle Foster,2007 The South African nursing experience over 90 years has been adequately documented and may be found on the shelves of public libraries university libraries and hospital libraries as well as between the pages of struggle literature such as Critical Health. This book does not attempt academic analysis per se rather is it an authentic oral and written account of the experiences which shaped the careers of black nurses. The sample of respondents was picked at random across the country as time and private purse allowed. They were assured anonymity in that only first or nicknames would be used as a rule except where a surname carries historical significance. In 1994 when the winds of changes blew democracy across the political landscape the South African nursing profession too was gusted along the road of revolution. It was no longer a question of whether change would come but when. Nonceba Lubanga in her chapter Nursing in South Africa has been given a detailed account of the struggle of black nurses referring to them as the unsung heroes of the African struggle in South Africa.
