Celebrity Fans and Their Consumer Behaviour Markus Wohlfeil, 2018-01-29 Ever since the dawn of the Hollywood star system in the early 1920s consumers have been fascinated by film stars and other celebrities and their seemingly glamorous private lives The public demand for celebrities has become so pervasive that it is arguably an essential element of our everyday culture and market economy and the focus of increasing study This book explores the widespread phenomenon of celebrity fandom and provides a deeper understanding of why individual consumers develop an emotional attachment to their favourite celebrity and what this parasocial fan relationship means in their life Based on an in depth insider study of a consumer's fan relationship with a film actress the book provides unique insights into the celebrity fan relationship revealing the meaning it has for the consumer in everyday life and how it evolves and expresses itself over time While this book is primarily located within the field of consumer research fandom and celebrity are of interest to a variety of academic disciplines It will appeal to an interdisciplinary audience from marketing and consumer research film studies media studies cultural studies and sociology Transcendence and Spirituality in Japanese Cinema Melissa Croteau, 2022-11-14 This book explores significant representations of Shinto and Buddhist sacred space spiritual symbols and religious concepts that are embedded in the secular framework of Japanese films aimed at general audiences in Japan and globally. These cinematic masterpieces by directors Akira Kurosawa, Hayao Miyazaki, Hirokazu Koreeda, and Makoto Shinkai operate as expressions of and potentially catalysts for transcendence of various kinds, particularly during the Heisei era (1989–2019) when Japan experienced severe economic hardship and devastating natural disasters. The book's approach to aesthetics and religion employs the multifaceted concepts of ma (structuring intervals), liminal space/time, ku (emptiness/sky), mono no aware (compassionate sensibility/resigned sadness), and musubi (generative interconnection), examining the dynamic evolving nature of these ancient principles that are at once spiritual, aesthetic, and philosophical. Scholars and enthusiasts of Japanese cinema, live action, and anime, religion, and film, cinematic aesthetics, and the relationship between East Asian religions and the arts will find fresh perspectives on these in this book, which moves beyond conventional notions of transcendental style and essentialized approaches to the multivalent richness of Japanese aesthetics.
