The Supreme Court of Ghana Law Reports, 2013 Police Encounters Ilana Feldman, 2015-05-13

Egypt came to govern Gaza as a result of a war a failed effort to maintain Arab Palestine Throughout the twenty years of its administration 1948 1967 Egyptian policing of Gaza concerned itself not only with crime and politics but also with control of social and moral order Through surveillance interrogation and a network of local informants the police extended their reach across the public domain and into private life seeing Palestinians as both security threats and vulnerable subjects who needed protection Security practices produced suspicion and safety simultaneously Police Encounters explores the paradox of Egyptian rule Drawing on a rich and detailed archive of daily police records the book describes an extensive security apparatus guided by intersecting concerns about national interest social propriety and everyday illegality In pursuit of security Egyptian policing established a relatively safe society but also one that blocked independent political activity The repressive aspects of the security society that developed in Gaza under Egyptian rule are beyond dispute But repression does not tell the entire story about its impact on Gaza Policing also provided opportunities for people to make claims of government influence their neighbors and protect their families      Policing and the Rule of Law in Sub-Saharan Africa Oluwagbenga Michael Akinlabi,2022-10-18 This book argues that strengthening policing and the rule of law is pivotal to promoting human rights equity access to justice and accountability in sub Saharan Africa Through a multidisciplinary approach this book considers the principles of accountability just laws open government and accessible and impartial dispute resolution in relation to key institutions that deliver and promote the rule of law in selected countries in sub Saharan Africa Chapters examine a range of topics including police abuse of power and the use of force police citizen relations judicial corruption human rights abuse brutality in the hands of armed forces and combating arms proliferation Drawing upon key institutions that deliver and promote the rule of law in sub Saharan African countries including Botswana Ghana Kenya Madagascar Nigeria Rwanda and South Africa the contributors argue that strengthening policing security and the rule of law is pivotal to promoting human rights equity access to justice and accountability As scholars from this geographical region the contributing authors present current realities and first hand accounts of the challenges in this context This book will be of interest to scholars of African studies criminology and criminal justice police studies international law practice transitional justice international development and political science      Police-community Relations in Ghana ,2003      Your Complete Guide to Green Card Lottery (diversity Visa) Michael Faro,2011-07 Every year more than 100 000 applicants are selected and receive United States Permanent Residency through the Lottery system While there are numerous other books that describe various methods of obtaining green cards or general ways of obtaining one no other book in the market currently covers this subject with as much detail      Country Reports on Human Rights Practices for 1987 United States. Department of State,1988      Ghana Kwame Boafo-Arthur,2013-07-04 Ghana has witnessed a revolution through the ballot box since its return to constitutional rule in 1993 Yet this period of sustained democratic government in an era of globalization and liberal triumphalism has brought with it new demands How has Ghana faced up to the problems of institution building state market relations and democratic leadership Can it deal with the challenges posed by security human rights and foreign policy in the twenty first century This unique collection interrogates all these issues and assesses the future of the democratic experiment in one of sub Saharan Africa s rare islands of peace In doing so it provides an invaluable guide to Ghana s political past present and future
