

Business Case for My Fashion Neckties

Problem The fashion industry has experienced a serious shortage of new designs and styles, especially in the necktie market. This is due to the fact that the industry has been dominated by a few large companies that have been reluctant to invest in research and development. This has led to a lack of innovation and a decline in the quality of the products. The industry needs to find a way to create new designs and styles that will attract customers and increase sales.

Investigation

in 20

The first step in the investigation was to identify the current market for neckties. This was done by researching the industry and its competitors. The next step was to identify the reasons for the shortage of new designs and styles. This was done by interviewing industry experts and conducting a survey of customers. The results of the investigation showed that the main reasons for the shortage were a lack of investment in research and development, a focus on traditional designs, and a lack of collaboration between designers and manufacturers.

Based on the findings of the investigation, the following recommendations were made: 1. Increase investment in research and development. 2. Explore new design styles and materials. 3. Collaborate with manufacturers to create new designs and styles. 4. Create a new brand of neckties that is focused on innovation and quality. 5. Launch a marketing campaign to promote the new brand. The business case for My Fashion Neckties is based on the fact that there is a growing market for new and innovative neckties. By following the recommendations of the investigation, the company can create a successful brand and increase its sales.

Investigation Summary

The investigation identified the current market for neckties and the reasons for the shortage of new designs and styles.

The investigation also identified the main reasons for the shortage: a lack of investment in research and development, a focus on traditional designs, and a lack of collaboration between designers and manufacturers.

The investigation recommended that the company should increase investment in research and development, explore new design styles and materials, collaborate with manufacturers, create a new brand, and launch a marketing campaign.
