A Responsive Technocracy? Christian Rauh,2016-10-21 This book challenges the common image of the European Commission as an insulated technocracy immune to political pressures Based on an innovative combination of public opinion protest and media data it first demonstrates that European integration has become increasingly politicised since the 1990s Against this background the Commission is now much more concerned about the public appeal of its policies That however challenges and contradicts the well worn patterns of supranational regulation in Europe Rauh systematically compares 17 legislative drafting processes in consumer policy between 1999 and 2009 Based on first hand insider accounts of involved officials his analysis indicates that the Commission s policy choices indeed become more consumer friendly under higher levels of public awareness While this improves the democratic quality of European decision making the book also reveals an enhanced conflict potential within the Commission and beyond which threatens to undermine the efficiency of legislative decision making in the EU

Hallucinating Stewards Fazle Chowdhury, There are some similarities between the 2023 state of the US economy and the 2008 financial crisis related to inflation and supply chain disruptions however the underlying causes of the two situations are different The concise but scoped analysis of major economies related to the present circumstances in the US banking crisis comes at a time when the US dollar is facing competition from China and others The US government and the Federal Reserve have taken steps to address the economic impact of the COVID 19 pandemic and curbing interest rates to battle inflation Such measures however have placed several US banks in a tough position On 15th March 2023 The Silicon Valley Bank SVB was closed down by US regulators This was followed by its former parent company SVB Financial Group filing for Chapter 11 bankruptcy the filing did not include its remaining subsidiaries A second New York based Signature Bank was forced to shut its doors It was later bought by New York Community Bancorp Flagstar Bank A third Silvergate bank had previously announced on March 8 they would liquidate due to their failures in their cryptocurrency portfolios Competitive Wholesale Electric Generation Act of 1989 United States.
