Narrative Elements Foldable:

Narrative Elements in the Double Tradition Stephen Hultgren, 2014-11-27 For a long time mainstream gospel scholarship has assumed that the so called Q material the double tradition in Matthew and Luke represents a document or tradition that was almost exclusively orientated towards the sayings of Jesus of Nazareth with little interest in a narrative about him This book argues on the contrary that the narrative material in the double tradition existed from the very beginning within a coherent Jesus narrative that ran from his baptism to his passion Far from being inserted by Matthew and Luke into the framework of Mark the double tradition is structured on the very same narrative framework as the Gospel of Mark a framework that predates Mark Conventional dichotomies in gospel origins the historical Jesus and the history of early Christianity are thus drawn into question Fold, refold. Klink III, 2007-08-02 The last generation of gospel scholarship has considered the reconstruction and analysis of the audience behind the gospels as paradigmatic The key hermeneutical template for reading the gospels has been the quest for the community that each gospel represents This scholarly consensus regarding the audience of the gospels has been reconsidered Using as a test case one of the most entrenched gospels Edward Klink explores the evidence for the audience behind the Gospel of John This study challenges the prevailing gospel paradigm by examining the community construct and its functional potential in early Christianity the appropriation of a gospel text and J L Martyn s two level reading of John and the implied reader located within the narrative The study concludes by proposing a more appropriate audience model for reading John as well as some implications for the function of the gospel in early Christianity

Trial Stories in Jewish Antiquity Chaya T. Halberstam,2025-05-15 What can early Jewish courtroom narratives tell us about the capacity and limits of human justice By exploring how judges and the act of judging are depicted in these narratives Trial Stories in Jewish Antiquity Counternarratives of Justice challenges the prevailing notion both then and now of the ideal impartial judge As a work of intellectual history the book also contributes to contemporary debates about the role of legal decision making in shaping a just society Chaya T Halberstam shows that instead of modelling a system in which lofty inaccessible judges follow objective and rational rules ancient Jewish trial narratives depict a legal practice dependent upon the individual judge s personal relationships reactive emotions and impulse to care Drawing from affect theory and feminist legal thought Halberstam offers original readings of some of the most famous trials in ancient Jewish writings alongside minor case stories in Josephus and rabbinic literature She shows both the consistency of a counter tradition that sees legal practice as contingent upon relationship and emotion and the specific ways in which that perspective was manifest in changing times and contexts

Empty Admiration Russell St. John,2020-10-09 Do as I say not as I do It is not only parents who fail to model instructions for their children but also teachers of preaching Robert Lewis Dabney was a nineteenth century Presbyterian theologian who taught theology and preaching at Union Theological Seminary in Virginia prior to and after the United States Civil War He is remembered for his powers as a systematic theologian his defense of southern Christianity and his life long racism A formidable theologian and respected teacher of preachers Dabney s Sacred Rhetoric 1870 poised him to influence a generation of young preachers to devote themselves to verse by verse expository preaching through books of the Bible Yet Dabney failed instead equipping his students to preach and modeling for them topical sermons preached on mere fragments of text often without context Empty Admiration traces Dabney s thought and action from his preaching theory to his classroom instruction to his personal practice revealing a man at odds with himself whose students not unlike children preached as Dabney preached not as Dabney said

The Two-fold Thought of Deleuze and Guattari Charles J. Stivale,1998-06-05 French philosophers Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari worked together extensively from the 1960s into the 1990s and the resulting intersections of their different sensibilities and modes of knowing fueled powerful alternatives to Marxian and psychoanalytic orthodoxies Yet readers approaching Deleuze and Guattari s works are often frustrated by the paucity or unfamiliarity of specific examples that might clarify their complex arguments This timely volume animates key concepts and terminology by applying them to provocative readings of literary texts films and cultural phenomena from Apocalypse Now to Cajun music and dance Drawing extensively from primary and critical sources to elucidate Deleuze and Guattari's theoretical contributions Stivale reinvigorates their two fold thought for use as an analytical tool in the humanities and social sciences The book also offers a clear introduction to the precollaborative phase of each thinker's work an interview Stivale conducted with Guattari and the first time English translation of a 1967 essay by Deleuze Winner Board of Governors Faculty Recognition Award Wayne State University

The Crafting of Grief Lorraine Hedtke, John

Winslade, 2016-07-15 Many books on grief lay out a model to be followed either for bereaved persons to live through or for professionals to practice and usually follow some familiar prescriptions for what people should do to reach an accommodation with loss The Crafting of Grief is different it focuses on conversations that help people chart their own path through grief Authors Hedtke and Winslade argue convincingly that therapists and counselors can support people more by helping them craft their own responses to bereavement rather than trying to squeeze experiences into a model In the pages of this book readers will learn how to develop lines of inquiry based on the concept of continuing bonds and they'll discover ways to use these ideas to help the bereaved craft stories that remember loved ones lives

Narrativity, Coherence and Literariness

Eva Sabine Wagner, 2020-06-08 The search for the defining qualities of narrative has produced an expansive range of definitions which largely unconnected with each other obscure the notion of narrativity rather than clarifying it The first part of this study remedies this shortcoming by developing a graded macro model of narrativity which serves three aims Firstly it provides a structured overview of the field of narrative elements and processes Secondly it facilitates the classification of narratological approaches by locating them on different stages of narrativity Finally it focuses attention on narrative dynamics as interpretative processes by which readers seek to produce narrative coherence The second part of this study identifies three different narrative dynamics which characterise Laclos's Dangerous Connections Kafka's Castle and Toussaint's novels Wagner bases her analyses of these dynamics not only on the texts themselves but also on the ways in which literary scholars imbue the texts with narrative coherence This book provides a long overdue systematisation of the jumbled field of theories of narrativity and opens new perspectives on the difficult relationship between narrative theory and interpretation Runaway Magee ,
