E. Lund, From USA Today Bestselling Romance Author S E Lund Book 3 in the Unrestrained Series Newly engaged Drake and Kate start their life together in Nairobi Kenya where Drake is teaching and working as a surgeon to help out an old friend Before they can even get settled in their new home they are faced with challenges to their view of themselves and their relationship Will their love survive Unrestrained is the third book in the bestselling trilogy in which the intense and passionate relationship between Drake and Kate unfolds as they search for their happy ever after Gender and Food in Transnational East Asias Eric Ping Hung Li, Chikako Nagayama, Jooyeon Rhee, 2021-10-12 Gender and Food in Transnational East Asias illustrates how the production and consumption of food impacts the changing social positions of individuals and their relationships with their families the state and their work as well as shapes their gender sexual ethnic and national identities. The transnational movement of food and people between East Asia and the rest of the world is increasingly visible forming various forces behind the cultural and political constructions of gender politics among and beyond Asian diasporas It argues that a critical engagement with practices and representations of food from gender perspectives can enhance our understanding of the society and culture of transnational East Asia The Infernal Desires of Angela Carter Joseph Bristow, Trev Lynn Broughton, 2014-10-13 Drawing on many aspects of contemporary feminist theory this lively collection of essays assesses Angela Carter's polemical fictions of desire Carter renowned for her irreverent wit was one of the most gifted subversive and The Anxiety of Dispossession Masha Belenky, 2008 Focusing on male stylish British writers to emerge in the 1960s authored texts Belenky demonstrates that this obsession with sexual jealousy conveys both patriarchal anxiety over disempowerment stemming from social upheaval and a male desire for social and sexual control over the female body and mind Bound up with the male prerogative of ownership jealousy was assigned an explicitly public role in guarding a man s property and propriety This book considers portrayals of jealousy by major authors such as Balzac Hugo and Zola alongside a broad range of works by medical writers journalists and moralists who wrote for popular audiences The Little Magazine Others and the Renovation of Modern American Poetry Suzanne W. Churchill, 2017-03-02 Suzanne Churchill s well researched and superbly crafted study is the first book length treatment of Others an important and neglected little magazine that served as a laboratory for modernist poetic experimentation In discussions of influential poets such as Mina Lov Marianne Moore and William Carlos Williams whose careers Others helped launch Churchill counters the notion of Modernism as aesthetically self isolating and socially disengaged Rather she traces a correspondence between formal innovation and social change in American modernist poetry and argues that this dimension of modernist formalism is lost when poems are studied in isolation Others provides a framework for reassessing the scope and significance of modernist formalism The little magazine not only anchors modernist poetry in a social context but also leads to new insight into major modernist texts Churchill's commitment to her subject's broad cultural contexts makes her book important for students and teachers of Modernism as well as for those working in the fields of American poetry and poetics gender studies queer theory Different Loving William Brame, Gloria Brame, Jon Jacobs, 1996-01-13 A detailed periodical studies and cultural studies eye opening account of the real sexual underground in America a thorough and serious study Playboy From Different Loving In order to understand unusual sexualities such as dominance and submission one first has to consider the question What is normal If the unique function of sex is reproductive and the only reason men and women should engage in sex is for the purpose of creating a new life then only heterosexual intercourse is normal By this standard many common acts even contraception must be considered aberrant Reproductive relevance was the Victorian standard of normalcy and even today many of the laws in the United States still abide by that model But people have always pursued sex for both reproduction and for pleasure and well being We start from the premise that sex for pleasure is a normal human drive and is acceptable when it brings pleasure to both partners From this perspective D S is simply a different kind of loving We hope to add to the greater body of knowledge about what people really do behind closed doors with the people they most love and trust Perhaps Different Loving will help open the door for further research into the mystery beauty and complexity of human life and its diverse expressions Praise for Different Loving The definitive guide to the sexual styles of those who walk on the wild side Kirkus Reviews As a window on largely unexplored territory Different Loving is a breakthrough in the dialogue on human sexuality and a significant work of popular sociology South Bend Tribune A comprehensive primer on loving with leather and Who is Teddy Villanova? Thomas Berger, 2016-07-10 romance by riding crop Michael Musto New York Daily News Pulitzer Prize nominee and author of The Feud Thomas Berger displays his genre bending prowess once more in this mystery turned comedy featuring unforgettable dialogue and an extremely fun cast of characters Berger's style which is one of the great pleasures of the book is something like S J Perelman's educated complicated graceful silly destructive in spirit and brilliant Leonard Michaels New York Times Book Review Russel Wren is a man of big words only trapped in a small living space An unlicensed private eye with an equally unlicensed handgun Russel's one big case away from becoming a household name and being able to pay his rent Until then our loquacious hero is content with blending his work life with his home life mostly by living in his office Or he was content until a huge man looking for a Teddy Villanova arrived not just to threaten Russel and pummel him senseless but to mysteriously reappear as a corpse mere hours later To make matters more complicated Russel finds a letter addressed to Teddy Villanova from a man named Donald Washburn II posing a threat to Villanova as serious as the beating Russel endured on his behalf When the police who finally arrive to investigate the corpse in Russel's office instead threaten to pin the murder on him and offer him his second beating of the day Russel is certain of two things First that those are not real cops and second someone somewhere has made a horrible mistake Russel doesn t just dive into this mystery to save his own life but to fulfill his far off dream of living on more than instant noodles

Aquiles, breaking chains Gonzalo Narvreón, 2021-06-18 There was no turning back What has been done was done and although Aquiles did not know how far he would go or what would happen his world had undeniably changed His curiosity the double intentions the hints and the phrases with double meaning had been left behind Instead that kiss had turned his straight man structure upside down The armor Aquiles had put on to preserve himself and protect himself from something that even he knew finally rusty and battered had fallen It was time to face the situation and accommodate his ideas to continue living a life that would surely not be the same In this third book of the Aguiles saga Gonzalo Narvre n continues to make us travel through captivating landscapes and situations making us spectators of the internal conflicts that Achilles faces and the desire that grows in him That feeling will tempt him to experiment and let himself be carried away into a new world which until now was alien and unknown to him and in which he will probably discover sensations and pleasures that he never imagined being able to feel Beyond the Mayan Prophecy Paul Shavelson, 2012-10-30 Featuring contributors such as John Edward Char Margolis Sandy Anastasia Rick Levine Glynis McCants Mark Van Stone Mary Jo McCabe Gahl Sasson Dr Alicia Tisdale Maggie Kerr Kala Ambrose Mirabai Devi Linda West Derek O Neill Alan Oken John Holland and Austyn Wells For the past forty years there have been a growing number of people who believe that nothing less than a cataclysmic change is coming in the evolution of Mankind From the dawning of the Age of Aquarius to cosmic forces read Aliens coming to engineer our DNA to the doomsday scenarios triggered by the end of the Mayan calendar there have been those who are sure that the world as we know it is coming to an end And soon But that cataclysmic end has not de materialized or has it In 2012 new data was discovered in Guatemala that gives us concrete evidence of a new paradigm concerning the Mayans and their calendar We are now faced with the idea that perhaps we aren't staring at Armageddon but stand in the middle of a 33 year transformative process While the Mayans might have seen a change for humanity it isn t an ending per se And if there is change why does that change need to imply destruction Couldn t it be an opportunity for mankind to assess their place in the universe and engage in a positive rebirth in a new era Beyond The Mayan Prophecy posits that our modern day weakness or confusion can be attributed to a less spiritual way of thinking Perhaps our left side brain thinking has held us back from discovering and accepting higher planetary secrets for centuries To move forward with more balanced understanding Paul Shavelson a multi media story teller and former Executive Producer of the hit psychic television show CROSSING OVER has spent the last decade exploring the world of psychics and mystics Paul has assembled a psychic dream team to decode the past and to predict the future With famed metaphysical experts such as Char Margolis Rick Levine Maggie Kerr Alan Oken and Numerologist Glynis McCants Paul covers everything from alien communication to instant collective thinking The Collective Unconscious being cultivated on the internet The dialogue and interviews will be discussed through sidebars by psychic medium author and TV personality John Edward who also provides the forward and afterword of this provocative subject With positive energy and a willingness to have us think outside the box and a personal journey by the author that brings an unexpected and moving aspect to the experience Beyond The Mayan Prophecy is an entertaining thought provoking work that will let the reader embrace why the second half of this transition could be remarkable and inspiring At the Publisher's request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied Richard Ford, 2010-11-10 In this powerful blockbuster of a novel The New York Times the Pulitzer Prize winning author of Independence Day introduces his most beloved character failed novelist turned sportswriter Frank Bascombe during an Easter weekend as he moves through the great losses of his life As a sportswriter Frank Bascombe makes his living studying people men mostly who live entirely within themselves This is a condition that Frank himself aspires to But at thirty eight he suffers from incurable dreaminess occasional pounding of the heart and the not too distant losses of a career a son and a marriage In the course of the Easter week in which Ford's moving novel transpires Bascombe will end up losing the remnants of his familiar life though with his spirits soaring The Habits of Racism Helen Ngo, 2017-08-16 The Habits of Racism examines some of the complex questions raised by the phenomenon and experience of racism Helen Ngo draws on the resources of Merleau Ponty to show how the conceptual reworking of habit as bodily orientation helps to identify the subtle but more fundamental workings of racism to catch its insidious gestural expressions as well as its habitual modes of racialized perception Racism as Ngo argues is equally expressed through bodily habits which once reformulated raises important ethical questions regarding the responsibility for one s racist habits Ngo also considers what the lived experience of racism and racialization teaches us about the nature of embodied and socially situated being arguing that racialized embodiment problematizes and extends existing accounts of embodied experience and calls into question dominant philosophical paradigms of the self as coherent fluid and synchronous Drawing on thinkers such as Fanon she argues that the racialized body is in front of itself and uncanny in the Heideggerian senses of strange and not at home while exploring the phenomenological and existential implications of this disorientation and displacement Finally she returns to the visual register to take up the question of objectification in the racist gaze critically examining the subject object ontology presupposed by Sartre's account of the gaze le regard Recalling that all embodied being is always already relational and co constituting Ngo draws on Merleau Ponty's concept of the intertwining to argue that a phenomenology of racialized embodiment reveals to us the ontological violence of racism not a merely violation of one's subjectivity as commonly claimed but also a violation of one's intersubjectivity. The original arguments in The Habits of Racism will be of particular value to students and scholars interested in critical philosophy of race phenomenology and social and political philosophy and may also be of interest to those working in feminist philosophy queer studies and disability studies.
