Name _____ Class _____

Figurative language is a type of descriptive language that an author uses to communicate and convey vivid images, sights, sounds, and other sensory detail to the reader. It is intended to encourage the reader to use his/her imagination and to make the story more emotionally intense, exciting and realistic.

There are many types of figurative language. I will present five of the most common kinds here, using examples from, "The Outsiders," by SE Hinton and Romeo and Juliet by William Shakespeare.

SIMILE- A simile compares one thing to another using the words "like" or "as".

For Example: I told you he (Soda) looks like a movie star, and he kind of radiates

But most (Soc's) looked at us as if we were dirt.

Soda attracted girls like honey attracted flies

METAPHOR- A metaphor compares two things without using the words like or as. A metaphor states that something IS something else and often uses the verb to be.

For Example: Johnny still reminded me of a lost puppy

Tim had the tense, hungry look of an alley cat

PERSONIFICATION- Personification gives human characteristics or abilities to something that is not human, such as animals, plants, or inanimate objects.

(Remembering this term is easy because when we describe an object as if it were a person we are using personification.)
