The Criminal Law of Competition in the UK and in the US Mark Furse,2012-01-01 In 2002 the UK introduced a criminal competition law into the UK legal system for the first time since the 18th century Using a range of analytical lenses Mark Furse re appraises this law ten years on and provides an extensive analysis of its features This invigorating work details the policy arguments behind the introduction of the law and examines through consideration of the successful prosecutions in the US the extent to which the law in practice may be considered to have succeeded or failed in the UK The role of the US as global antitrust policeman is also considered The book concludes with a consideration of the difficulties facing the UK in choosing to pursue a criminal route within the current civil framework Including full discussions of relevant literature relating to the criminalisation of cartels and the use of personal sanctions against cartelists this book will appeal to postgraduates and advanced undergraduate students of competition law competition law practitioners in the UK EU and US as well as competition law enforcement personnel

Writing an Identity Not Your Own Alex Temblador,2024-08-13 A practical guide to help authors authentically write and edit a character whose identity is different than their own Do you have the tools to authentically write and edit a character whose identity is different than your own It s not a subject that s generally taught in creative writing programs and there are so few craft books and online resources on the subject Even if you can take a seminar class or workshop there s nothing like having an easy to understand book on hand to provide guidance and insight every time you craft characters with historically marginalized identities In Writing an Identity Not Your Own award winning author Alex Temblador discusses one of the most contentious topics in creative writing crafting a character whose identity is historically marginalized What is identity and how do unconscious biases and bias blocks impact and influence what we write What is intersectionality You ll learn about identity terms stereotypes and tropes and receive genre specific advice related to various identities to consider when writing different races and ethnicities sexual and romantic orientations gender identities disabilities nationalities and more Through writing strategies exercises and literary excerpts writers will gain a clearer understanding on how misrepresentations and harmful portrayals can appear in storylines dialogue and characterization Alex will guide writers from the brainstorming phase through the editing process so they can gain a full understanding of the complexities of writing other identities and why it s important to get them right Asian Godfathers Joe

Studwell,2008-09-23 The author of How Asia Works follows the money Alarming enlightening Joe Studwell should be named chief myth buster for Asian business Financial Times Hong Kong and Southeast Asia are home to five hundred million people yet their economies are dominated by only fifty families whose interests range from banking to real estate shipping to sugar gambling to lumber At their peak eight of the world s two dozen richest men were Southeast Asian but their names would not be familiar to most regular readers of The Wall Street Journal A complex mythology surrounds these billionaires but in Asian Godfathers Joe Studwell finds that the facts are even more remarkable than the myths Studwell has spent fifteen years as a reporter in the region and he marshals his unprecedented sources to paint intimate and revealing portraits of the men who control Southeast Asia Studwell also provides us with a rich and deep understanding of the broader historic economic and political influences that have shaped Southeast Asia over the past 150 years Asian Godfathers is a riveting and illuminating book that lifts the curtain on a world of staggering secrecy and hypocrisy and reveals for the first time who the leaders of one of the planet s most important and tumultuous markets really are why they got to the top and how they keep themselves there The romp around the region s pleasure domes is a blast The Wall Street Journal Asia Making Peace in Drug Wars Benjamin Lessing,2018 State crackdowns on drug cartels often backfire producing entrenched cartel state conflict deterrence approaches have curbed violence but proven fragile This book explains why
