NAPOLEON'S COSTLY MISTAKES

(Pages 234–236)

What mistakes did Napoleon make abroad?

Napoleon's own personality posed a threat to his empire. His love of power pushed him to expand his empire. His efforts to extend French rule led to his empire's collapse.

Napoleon made three costly mistakes. His first mistake was caused by his desire to crush Britain. He wanted to hurt the British economy. So in 1806 he ordered a blockade. This was an effort to stop all trade between Britain and the other European nations. Napoleon called this policy the Continental System. It was supposed to make continental Europe more self-sufficient.

The effort failed because some Europeans secretly brought in British goods. At the same time, the British put their own blockade around Europe. Because the British navy was so strong, it worked well. Soon the French economy, along with others on the European continent, weakened.

Napoleon's second mistake was to make his brother king of Spain in 1808. The Spanish people were loyal to their own king. With help from Britain, bands of peasant fighters called guerrillas fought Napoleon for five years. Napoleon lost 300,000 troops during this Peninsular War. (The war gets its name from the Iberian Peninsula on which Spain is located.)
