A Report of the Survey of the Niagara Falls School System University of the State of New York,1921 Mama Mary and Her Children James B. Reuter, SJ,2020-09-06 Writing about the Virgin Mary in the Philippines is like writing about the sunrise You are telling the readers what they already know appreciate and love So when I was asked to produce a book on the Blessed Mother I listened and I was grateful that my friends felt that I was capable of doing this But I did not write the book right away because I was sure it would be a twice told tale But the request haunted me I had a deep sense of guilt a feeling that this was something I should do and I wasn't doing anything about it I didn't know exactly how to present anything really new about this beautiful peasant woman the mother of God Then I remembered my grandmother whom we called Nana How she prayed for my Uncle Ern for thirty years And how Uncle Ern finally came back to God not only on his deathbed but three full days after the doctors expected him to die I also remembered other things that happened in my own family stories that only I could tell and if I don't record them no one else will Moreover I keep receiving letters from both friends and strangers telling me about the beautiful adventures they experienced with the Virgin Mary and the amazing answers they received from their prayers to her These stories are all unique No two people's stories are exactly alike And the way each one reacts when touched by the hand of God is unique This reminds me of American writer William Sydney Porter better known as O Henry and one of his collection of stories called The Four Million based on the population of New York City at the time he published it He felt that if you could portray the soul of any one in that four million you would have a drama that never happened before and will never happen again This gave me courage If I could just tell the actual stories of real people and their contact with the mother of God then every narration would be new The Pall Mall Magazine ,1898

Labba and Creek Water Deloris Craig,2004 The comprises of ten short stories which should appeal to the target audience not only in the Caribbean but in other parts of the world There are many young people of West Indian origin living in North America Europe and elsewhere who want to read original stories that enable them to identify with their roots Creating Your Teaching Plan Arleen P.
