La Mort Essai Sur La Finitude:

La mort. Essai sur la finitude Françoise Dastur, 2007-09-17 Une première version de cette réflexion a été publiée en 1994 Hatier coll Optiques destinée aux étudiants et aux lecteurs s'intéressant quelques grandes questions fondamentales Cette nouvelle version largement remaniée et augmentée est aussi une réflexion sur la mort et la finitude non pas la recherche d'un remède contre la mort ce qui domine dans la tradition philosophique occidentale mais une ouverture la mort comme destin de tout mortel un essai pour parvenir trouver dans la finitude du temps c'est-à-dire dans la mort elle-même la ressource de la vie d'une vie qui ne recule pas devant la mort mais accepte de compter avec elle Figures de la mort Jean-Marie Brohm, 2008

Apprivoiser la mort au XXI^e siècle Collectif, 2023-02-01 T00:00:00-05:00 Les textes rassemblés dans cet ouvrage abordent la mort ses significations au fil du temps ainsi que ses limites tant physiques que métaphysiques Que pouvons-nous encore dire de la mort au XXI^e siècle Que nous dit le rapport des époques passées la mort sur les liens que nous entretenons aujourd'hui avec elle Quel sens pouvons-nous attribuer la souffrance qu'elle fait naître Que nous est-il permis d'espérer et comment nous est-il possible de l'apprivoiser lorsqu'elle surgit concrètement dans nos vies Nous vivons dans une société où la réalité de la mort est désymbolisée et niée pour ne pas dire d'une façon face aux mythes et aux politiques actuelles centrés autour du désir de repousser toujours plus loin les limites de la finitude humaine Rfléchir aujourd'hui au sens donner la mort en utilisant les outils que nous fournissent différentes sciences nous permet paradoxalement de vivre plus pleinement notre vie The World after the End of the World Kas Saghafi, 2020-04-01 Examines themes of loss and mourning in the late work of Derrida In this book Kas Saghafi argues that the notion of the end the world in Derrida's late work is not a theological or cosmological matter but a meditation on mourning and the death of the other He examines this and several other tightly knit motifs in Derrida's work mourning survival the phantasm the event and most significantly the term salut which in French means at once greeting and salvation An underlying concern of The World after the End of the World is whether a discourse on salut saving being saved and salvation can be dissociated from discourse on religion Saghafi compares Derrida's thought along these lines with similar concerns of Jean-Luc Nancy's Combining analysis of these themes with reflections on personal loss this book maintains that for Derrida salutation greeting and welcoming is resistant to the economy of salvation This resistance calls for what Derrida refers to as a spectro-poetics devoted to and assigned to the other's singularity French Women Philosophers Christina Howells, 2013-04-15 This reader is the first of its kind to present the work of leading French women philosophers to an English speaking audience Many of the articles appear for the first time in English and have been specially translated for the collection Christina Howells draws on major areas of philosophical and theoretical debate including Ethics Psychoanalysis Law Politics History Science and Rationality Each section and article is clearly introduced and situated in its intellectual context The book is necessarily feminist in inspiration but draws on an unusually wide range of thinkers chosen to represent the philosophy of women rather than feminist philosophy It will be ideal for anyone coming to this area for the first time as well as those seeking to extend their understanding of French thought and Continental Philosophy Articles by the following writers are included Francoise Collin Sylviane Agacinski Catherine Chalié Luce Irigaray Francoise Proust Francoise Dastur Barbara Cassin Natalie Depraz Elisabeth de Fontenay Elisabeth Badinter Francoise Heritier Helene Cixous Monique Schneider Julia Kristeva Sarah Kofman Monique David Menard Francoise d'Eaubonne Genevieve Fraisse Michele Le Doeuff Natalie Charraud Francoise Balibar Anne Fagot Largeault Colette Guillaumin Dominique Schnapper Myriam Revault D'Allonnes Nicole Loraux Mireille Delmas Marty Blandine Kriegel

Handbook of the Anthropocene Nathanaël Wallenhorst, Christoph Wulf, 2023-08-21 This Handbook is a collection of contributions of more than 300 researchers who have worked to grasp the Anthropocene this new geological epoch characterised by a modification of the conditions of habitability of the Earth for all living things in its biogeophysical and socio-political reality These researchers also sought to define a historical and prospective anthropology that integrates social economic cultural and political issues as well as of course environmental ones What are the anthropological changes needed to ensure that our human adventure will be able to continue in the Anthropocene And what are the educational and political issues involved Anthropocene is fast becoming a widely used term but thus far there has been no reference work explaining the thoughts of the greatest experts of the present day on this subject at the intersection of biogeophysical and socio-political knowledge A scientific and political concept but which is also the conceptual vehicle for conveying the scientific community's sense of concern this complex term is explained by international experts as they reflect on scientific arguments taking place in earth system science the social sciences and the humanities What these researchers from different disciplines have in common is a healthy concern for the future and how to prepare for it in the Anthropocene and also the identification of possible anthropological changes This Handbook encourages readers to immerse themselves in reflections on the human adventure through descriptions of our differing heritages and the future that is in the process of being written

Death Representations in Literature Adriana Teodorescu, 2015-01-12 If the academic field of death studies is a prosperous one there still seems to be a level of mistrust concerning the capacity of literature to provide socially relevant information about death and to help improve the anthropological understanding of how culture is shaped by the human condition of mortality Furthermore the relationship between literature and death tends to be trivialized in the sense that death representations are interpreted in an over-aestheticized manner As such this approach has a propensity to consider death in literature to be significant only for literary studies and gives rise to certain persistent clichés such as the power of literature to annihilate death This volume overcomes such stereotypes and reveals the great potential of literary studies to provide fresh and accurate ways of interrogating death as a steady and unavoidable human reality and as an ever continuing socio-cultural construction The volume brings together researchers from various countries the USA the UK France Poland New Zealand Canada India Germany Greece and Romania with different academic backgrounds in fields as diverse as literature art history social studies criminology musicology and cultural studies and provides answers to questions such as What are the features of death representations in certain literary genres Is it possible to speak of an homogeneous vision of death in the case of some literary movements How do writers perceive imagine and describe their death through their personal diaries or how do they metabolize the death of the significant others through their writings To what extent does the literary representation of death refer to the extra fictional socio historically constructed Death Is it moral to represent death in children s literature What are the differences and similarities between representing death in literature and death representations in other connected fields Are metaphors and literary representations of death forms of death denial or on the contrary a more insightful way of capturing the meaning of death

Maurice Blanchot Carolyn Bailey Gill,2005-08-04 This timely collection of essays is the first to be written on the work of Maurice Blanchot in English One of the finest writers of our time Blanchot is a contemporary of Bataille and Levinas his writing has influenced the likes of Derrida and Foucault Eminent commentators featured here include Simon Critchley Paul Davies Cristopher Fynsk Rodolphe Gasche Leslie Hill Michael Holland Jeffery Mehlman Roger Laporte Ian Maclachlan Marie Claire Ropars Wuilleumier Gillian Rose and Ann Smock The essays consider the political implications of Blanchot s questioning the relationship between philosophy and literature In addition the provocative issue of Blanchot s politics during the 1930s is clarified by a letter from Blanchot to one of the contributors published here for the first time Maurice Blanchot The Demand of Writing is a crucial selection for all students of philosophy literature or French studies

Death and Mortality in Contemporary Philosophy Bernard N. Schumacher,2010-09-30 This book contributes to current bioethical debates by providing a critical analysis of the philosophy of human death Bernard N Schumacher discusses contemporary philosophical perspectives on death creating a dialogue between phenomenology existentialism and analytic philosophy He also examines the ancient philosophies that have shaped our current ideas about death His analysis focuses on three fundamental problems 1 the definition of human death 2 the knowledge of mortality and of human death as such and 3 the question of whether death is nothing to us or on the contrary whether it can be regarded as an absolute or relative evil Drawing on scholarship published in four languages and from three distinct currents of thought this volume represents a comprehensive and systematic study of the philosophy of death one that provides a provocative basis for discussions of the bioethics of human mortality

Death within the Text Adriana Teodorescu,2019-03-13 The book tackles the challenging theme of death as seen through the lens of literature and its connections with history the visual arts anthropology philosophy and other fields in humanities It searches for answers to three questions what can we know about death how is death socialised and how and for which purposes is death aesthetically shaped Unlike many other publications the volume does not endorse the fallacy of over simplifying death by seeing it either in an exclusively positive light or by reducing it to a purely literary figure Using literature s potential to stimulate critical thinking many contemporary stereotypical configurations of death and dying are debunked and many hitherto unforeseen ways in which death functions as a complex trigger of meaning making are revealed The book proves that death is an inexhaustible source of meanings which should be understood as peremptorily plural discontinuous problematic competitive and often conflictual It offers original contributions to the field of death studies and also to literary and cultural studies
