How He Loves Me! Seung-woo Byun, 2021-03-10 There are three kinds of knowledge The knowledge of the world the knowledge of Scripture and the knowledge of God The worthiest of these is the knowledge of God Indeed I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord Philippians 3 8 Everything depends on this including whether to gain eternal life or not Joh 17 3 I want to know God not just simply to have the knowledge of Scripture However I didn't really know God much although I was well versed in Scripture I was always sorry and discontented about this Then recently Bobby Conner a world renowned prophet prophesied to me as follows You will continue to write many books Next time you will be writing a book about God's glory and beauty The revelation of God's glory and beauty will be downloaded unto you So you will write about His glory and beauty re-phrased I've written over thirty books so far However a book dealing with the glory and beauty of God is a different matter I had wanted to write a book on this subject from a long time ago However I couldn't do so because I knew God only a little So when I was listening to the prophecy I doubted thinking Will such a thing really happen Will this be really possible Then on the week when I received the prophecy from Bobby Conner I indeed learned many things about God It got started as I read Roland Buck's book Angels on Assignment and the knowledge of God came upon me throughout the time of Bobby Conner's conferences I felt compelled by the Holy Spirit to preach and publish a book with this repeatedly and very strongly So I have written a book which is this one Thus please read this book very carefully and make sure to digest it Then all of you like me will be transformed to ones who really love the Lord from ones who desire to love the Lord
