Japanese War Crimes and Related Topics: A Guide to Records at the National Archives United States National Archives and Records Administration, 2007. This finding aid will help researchers interested in Japanese war crimes, war criminals and war crimes trials to navigate the vast holdings of the U.S. National Archives and Records Administration at College Park, NARA. It will also be useful to anyone interested in military intelligence, political, diplomatic, economic, financial, social and cultural activities in the Far East during 1931-1951 as well as to those searching for information regarding Allied prisoners of war, the organization, functions and activities of American and Allied agencies and the Japanese occupation of countries and the American occupation of Japan. While not aimed at researchers interested in the strategic and tactical military and naval history of the war in the Far East, this finding aid may nevertheless be useful to those with such interests if only to identify record groups and series of records that may bear on those topics. This finding aid covers records from over twenty record groups and includes materials declassified under the Japanese Imperial Government Disclosure Act of 2000 (P.L. 106-567) as well as records that were never classified and those declassified before the passage of the Disclosure Act. Because the process of identifying, declassifying, accessioning and processing of records under the Act is taking place as this finding aid is being compiled, late arriving records may not be identified in this finding aid. Researchers should consult the IWG Web site <http://www.archives.gov/iwg> for a complete and up-to-date list of records declassified under the Japanese Imperial Government Disclosure Act. Federal agencies involved in the identification and declassification of relevant classified records ascertained that there were relatively few pertinent records that were still classified. Most relevant records were either never classified or were declassified decades before the Act and were already in NARA's custody. While this finding aid's coverage is broad, it is not comprehensive. Researchers may find other relevant series of records within the record groups mentioned or not mentioned. Researchers are encouraged to use other finding aids and consult with NARA staff to locate records of interest. In addition, the National Archives at College Park holds nontextual records such as still photographs and motion pictures that researchers may want to examine. Other NARA facilities hold many records and donated material related to World War II, including records related to the subjects covered in this finding aid. This is particularly true of the Franklin D. Roosevelt the

Harry S Truman and the Dwight D. Eisenhower Archives as vast mountain ranges of records with the archivists guiding the expeditions. Explorations on familiar well-trodden paths produce new perspectives when examined with fresh eyes and imagination. DK Eyewitness Travel Guide Tokyo DK, 2015-03-02 DK Eyewitness Travel Guide Tokyo will lead you straight to the best attractions this city has to offer. It demonstrates how to use inexpensive materials to create sophisticated effects in the home and garden. A list of bamboo collections, gardens, and research sources is included. For centuries, bamboo has fascinated legions of craftspeople, plant lovers, and devotees of the handcrafted object. And nowhere is bamboo used more elegantly and distinctly than in Japan. Its presence touches every part of daily life: art, crafts, design, literature, and food. Its beauty.

Takamure Itsue, Japanese Antiquity, and Matricultural Paradigms that Address the Crisis of Modernity Yasuko Sato, 2023-06-30 This book explores Takamure Itsue's 1894-1964 intellectual odyssey as Japan's most notable pioneer in the study of women's history. When she embarked on a series of scholarly projects that investigated marriage patterns and kinship systems in ancient Japan, it was a response to crisis-ridden modernity. Relentless in her quest to dismantle patriarchy, this woman from the Land of Fire, a nickname for her birthplace, Kumamoto Prefecture, locked herself away in 1931 and spent the rest of her life conducting research on female-friendly societies with matrilineal arrangements under kinship-based communal systems. While dissecting the patriarchal norms undergirding the capitalist nation-state, she embraced matricultural paradigms that embodied life-sustaining and life-enhancing values through communal childrearing and matrilineal inheritance. Takamure, a visionary thinker, asked big picture questions and addressed multifarious issues of contemporary relevance, including beauty standards, human trafficking, gross disparities in wealth, war, and imperialism, science, and religion, and humanity's relationship with nature. Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 1997 National Union Catalog, 1973 Includes entries for maps and atlases. The semi-centennial of the Hokkaido imperial university, Japan, 1876-1926 Hokkaidō Teikoku Daigaku, 1927 Index of Patents Issued from the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 1993 Index of Patents Issued from the United States Patent Office United States Patent Office, 1973 pt 1 List of patentees pt 2 Index to subjects of inventions Geophysical Abstracts, 1968-12 The Aesthetics of Shadow Daisuke Miyao, 2013-03-04 In this revealing study, Daisuke Miyao explores the aesthetics of shadow in Japanese cinema in the first half of the twentieth century This term coined by the production designer Yoshino Nobutaka refers to the perception that shadows add depth and mystery Miyao analyzes how this notion became naturalized as the representation of beauty in Japanese films situating Japanese cinema within transnational film history He examines the significant roles lighting played in distinguishing the styles of Japanese film from American and European film and the ways that lighting facilitated the formulation of a coherent new Japanese cultural tradition Miyao discusses the influences of Hollywood and German cinema alongside Japanese Kabuki theater lighting traditions and the emergence of neon commercial lighting during this period He argues that lighting technology in cinema had been structured by the conflicts of modernity in Japan including capitalist transitions in the film industry the articulation of Japanese cultural and national identity and increased subjectivity for individuals By focusing on the understudied element of film lighting and treating cinematographers and lighting designers as essential collaborators in moviemaking Miyao offers a rereading of Japanese film history Agricultural Trade and Protection in Japan Jimmie S.
