Challenges and Future Perspectives in Nutrition and Sustainable Diets in Africa Hettie Carina Schönfeldt, Gloria Essilfie, Yunyun Gong, 2024-05-06 Africa is confronted with the triple burden of malnutrition it is also faced with the triple challenges of poverty inequality and unemployment In many African countries large proportions of the population rely on agriculture not only for their food but also for their livelihoods A transformed agricultural and food system is thus a necessary condition for addressing this double triple challenge Additionally post harvest and food waste and losses reduce the availability of sufficient quantities of safe edible and preferable foods At least one third of food produced at farm level is lost due to inappropriate storage infrastructure and agro processing technologies in developing countries and one third of food purchased is wasted at household and retail level Regional Review on Status and Trends in Aquaculture

Development in Sub-Saharan Africa - 2015 Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2017 The present regional review and synthesis for sub Saharan Africa SSA provides an overview of major issues and trends in the aquaculture sector between 2004 and 2014 with emphasis on outstanding issues over the last five years The regional review reflects development in 41 countries in SSA for which production was reported to FAO in 2014 The production volume and value data have been derived from the latest FAO global aquaculture dataset 1950 2014 FishStat Global Initiatives and Higher Education in the Fourth Industrial Revolution Erna Oliver, 2022-08-11 The Fourth industrial Revolution 4IR is forcing higher education HE into a new era where it must either actively and positively contribute to innovation sustainability and development or become obsolete and redundant HE must leave its ivory tower and forge links and partnerships with society industry and governing bodies by delivering graduates that are holistically educated and trained to bring positive innovation and change and to address the challenges that humanity is facing in the 21st century Improving household consumption and expenditure surveys' food consumption metrics Fiedler, John L., Mwangi, Dena M., 2016-11-18 As the nature of global malnutrition changes there is a growing need and increasing urgency for more and better information about food consumption and dietary patterns The past two decades have seen a dramatic increase in the number availability and analysis of the food consumption data collected in a variety of multipurpose household surveys referred to collectively as household consumption and expenditure surveys HCESs These surveys are heterogeneous and their quality varies substantially by country Still they share some common shortcomings in their measurement of food consumption nutrient intakes and nutrition status that undermine their relevance and reliability for purposes of designing and implementing food policies and programs This review crafts a strategic approach to the unfinished global agenda of improving HCESs collection of food consumption data Starting with the priority studies recommended by a 100 country HCES review Smith Dupriez and Troubat 2014 it focuses on a strategic subset of those studies that deal most directly and exclusively with the measurement of food and that are of fundamental importance to all HCES stakeholders in low and middle income countries Drawing from the literature this study provides a more detailed more circumspect justification as to why these particular studies are needed while identifying key hypotheses explaining why these studies are of growing urgency and demonstrating why now is a propitious time for undertaking them The review also identifies important study design considerations while pointing out potential challenges to successful implementation stemming from technical capacity economic administrative and political considerations Six key studies are rank ordered from a global perspective as follows taking into account 1 the likely shared consensus that a topic is an important source of measurement error in estimating consumption 2 the perceived urgency of the need for addressing a particular source of measurement error 3 the perceived likelihood of success that is that the efforts will improve the accuracy of measurement 4 whether or not the study entails modifying the questionnaire 5 the ease with which a study may begin and 6 the extent to which the study is independent of necessary negotiations with existing HCES stakeholders because of the types of changes it is likely to entail in either the questionnaire or the way the data have traditionally been processed Multicultural Education in an Age of Globalization Chinaka S. DomNwachukwu, 2019-05-13 Multicultural Education in an Age of Globalization Compelling Issues for Engagement starts out with a discussion of western colonization of the 19th and 20th centuries and the residual effects of colonialism in the forms of colonial mindset of power dominance and white racial superiority that have continued to challenge the hopes of a peaceful and more harmonious exchange and interaction in the 21st century global communities Issues such as white privilege and cultural humility are discussed in depth Subsequently the idea of globalization and the concept of global citizenship are also addressed in light of their implications for multicultural education curriculum and practice in the 21st century classrooms The book identifies and discusses compelling issues that must be carefully addressed as we undertake multicultural education in the 21st century educational setting whether in the K 12 or higher education setting Such issues include Affirmative Action Gender Equity issues Religion in the public school setting and the problem of Poverty in the 21st century societies      Psychiatric Contours Nancy Rose Hunt, Hubertus Büschel, 2024-03-08 Psychiatric Contours investigates new histories of psychiatry derangement and agitated subjectivities in colonial and decolonizing Africa      Illuminating Hidden Harvests Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, Duke University, WorldFish, 2023-03-15 Illuminating Hidden Harvests the contributions of small scale fisheries to sustainable development hereinafter IHH is a global study uncovering the contributions and impacts of small scale fisheries through a multidisciplinary approach to data collection and analysis The study provides information that quantifies and improves understanding of the crucial role of small scale fisheries in the areas of food security and nutrition sustainable livelihoods poverty eradication and healthy ecosystems It also examines gender equality as well as the nature and scope of governance in small scale fisheries The IHH study was carried out in support of the implementation of the Voluntary Guidelines for Securing Sustainable Small Scale Fisheries in the Context of Food Security and Poverty Eradication SSF Guidelines themselves developed in recognition of the plight of small scale fishers fishworkers and associated communities and released as a contribution to the International Year of Artisanal Fisheries and Aquaculture 2022 The purpose of this report is to contribute to a more holistic understanding of what small scale fisheries are their importance and why they are essential to efforts to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs By using this knowledge wisely within a human rights based approach in line with the SSF Guidelines and by empowering small scale fishers and fishworkers a more inclusive equitable sustainable and resilient small scale scale fisheries subsector can be achieved Realizing this goal would benefit hundreds of thousands in fishing communities and society at large With this in mind the IHH report is aimed at all those with a stake or an interest in the small scale fisheries subsector in particular decision makers who are concerned with fisheries poverty eradication food security and nutrition and sustainable development more generally It is also addressed to small scale fisheries actors themselves and those who support them

Discourses of Globalisation and Higher Education Reforms Joseph Zajda, W. James Jacob, 2022-03-15 This book examines some of the major higher education reforms and policy shifts globally particularly in the light of recent shifts in quality and standards driven education and policy research It critiques the neo liberal ideological imperatives of current higher education and policy reforms and illustrates the way that changes in the relationship between the state and higher education policy affect current trends in higher education reforms Using diverse comparative education paradigms from critical theory to historical comparative research the chapters focus on globalisation ideology and higher education reforms and examine both the reasons and outcomes of higher education reforms and policy change The book analyses and evaluates the policy shifts in methodological approaches to globalisation and higher education reforms and their impact on education policy and pedagogy The book contributes in a very scholarly way to a more holistic understanding of the nexus between globalisation
