Constraints on Kenya's Food and Beverage Exports Michael Schluter,1984 Research report on obstacles to food and beverage exports from Kenya explains role of the agricultural sector in exports as well as research method makes a market study in petroleum exporting countries examines potentials of coffee tea livestock sugar maize pulses and horticulture cash crops discusses marketing problems the economic policy of food exports and economic implications for Kenya s development policy Bibliography and graphs A History of Twentieth-century African Literatures Oyekan Owomoyela,1993-01-01 African literatures says volume editor Oyekan Owomoyela testify to the great and continuing impact of the colonizing project on the African universe African writers must struggle constantly to define for themselves and other just what Africa is and who they are in a continent constructed as a geographic and cultural entity largely by Europeans This study reflects the legacy of colonialism by devoting nine of its thirteen chapters to literature in Europhone languages English French and Portuguese Foremost among the Anglophone writers discussed are Nigerians Amos Tutuola Chinua Achebe and Wole Soyinka Writers from East Africa are also represented as are those from South Africa Contributors for this section include Jonathan A Peters Arlene A Elder John F Povey Thomas Knipp and J Ndukaku Amankulor In African Francophone literature we see both writers inspired by the French assimilationist system and those influenced by Negritude the African culture affirmation movement Contributors here include Servanne Woodward Edris Makward and Alain Ricard African literature in Portuguese reflecting the nature of one of the most oppressive colonizing projects in Africa is treated by Russell G Hamilton Robert Cancel discusses African language literatures while Oyekan Owomoyela treats the question of the language of African literatures Carole Boyce Davies and Elaine Savory Fido focus on the special problems of African women writers while Hans M Zell deals with the broader issues of publishing censorship resources and organization European-language Writing in Sub-Saharan Africa Albert S. Gérard,1986-01-01 The first major comparative study of African writing in western languages European language Writing in Sub Saharan Africa edited by Albert S G rard falls into four wide ranging sections an overview of early contacts and colonial developments Under Western Eyes chapters on Black Consciousness manifest in the debates over Panafricanism and Negritude a group of essays on mental decolonization expressed in Black Power texts at the time of independence struggles and finally Comparative Vistas sketching directions that future comparative study might explore An introductory essay stresses the millennia of writing in Africa side by side with a richly eloquent and artistic set of vernacular oral traditions written and oral traditions have become interwoven in adaptations of imported forms and linguistic innovations that challenge traditional high literary norms G rard uses the mathematical concept of fuzzy sets to explain why the focus on Black Africa has led him to set aside for future analysis the literatures produced in North Africa which fall under the influence of Muslim civilization as well as the diasporic literatures of the New World Over sixty scholars from twenty two countries contribute specialized studies of creative writing by leading authors in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries such as Achebe Mphahlele Ngugi Senghor Soyinka and Tutuola Critical analyses are organized primarily around regions reflecting different colonial languages imposed through schools and other social institutions Some authors trace the adaptation of western genres others identify syncretism with folktales or myths The volumes are attentive to the heterogeneity of national literatures addressed to polyethnic and multilingual populations and they note the instrumental politics of language in newly independent states A closing chapter Tasks Ahead identifies areas for future scholars to explore Research in Education ,1974 Resources in Education ,1985 Production of Fish in the Colonial Empire Charles Frederick Hickling,Great Britain. Colonial Office,1954 Journal of Eastern African Research & Development ,1979 Planning African Development Glen Norcliffe,Tom Pinfold,2012-08-06 First published in 1981 this book concerns specifically the Kenyan experience with regards to development planning but given that the problems of hunger poverty and underdevelopment manifest themselves in slightly different forms across all African countries this book has considerable relevance to development planning across the African continent The first set of essays in this collection address the question of development which is undoubtedly Africa s highest development priority The second grouping of essays considers issues in project planning and asks questions concerning cost method outcome and evaluation of various projects in Kenya

International Book Publishing: An Encyclopedia Philip G. Altbach,Edith S. Hoshino,2015-05-08 First Published in 1996 This encyclopedia is unique in several ways As the first international reference source on publishing it is a pioneering venture Our aim is to provide comprehensive discussion and analysis of key subjects relating to books and publishing worldwide The sixty four essays included here feature not only factual and statistical information about the topic but also analysis and evaluation of those facts and figures The chapters are significantly more comprehensive than those typically found in an encyclopedia A History of Modern Librarianship Pamela Spence Richards,Wayne A. Wiegand,Marija Dalbello,2015-05-26 A broad comparative history of librarianship this intriguing work goes beyond the standard focus on institutions and collections to help you explore the part modern librarianship played and continues to play in forming Western cultures Previous histories of libraries in the Western world the last of which was published nearly 20 years ago concentrate on libraries and librarians This book takes a different approach It focuses on the practice of librarianship showing you how that practice has contributed to constructing the heritage of cultures To do so this groundbreaking collection of essays presents the history of modern librarianship in the context of recent developments of the library institution professionalization of librarianship and innovation through information technology Organized by region the book addresses the widely recognized international impact of Anglo American librarianship and its continuing influence over the past century combining critical analysis with chronological histories of modern librarianship in Europe North America Australia New Zealand and Africa An introductory chapter explains the origins of the project and a concluding chapter examines the effects of digitization on modern librarianship in the 21st century Beyond Federation Emma

Hunter, Daniel Branch, Ismay Milford, Gerard McCann, 2025-08-18 In the period of mid twentieth century decolonization when nationalism and globalism were hotly contested East Africans nurtured regionalism in their intellectual and creative work This book looks beyond political projects of federation to recover ideas and practices of regionalism their remarkable longevity and their significance for understanding possibilities of radical change In doing so it tells a different story about the fate of the category of East Africa building on a body of scholarship about the imagined political communities of decolonizing Africa and rejecting narratives that explain the failure of regional integration as the immediate consequence of postcolonial authoritarianism or global economic crisis Report on the East Africa High Commission Great Britain. Colonial Office, 1953

Imperial Encore Caroline Ritter, 2021-01-26 In the 1930s British colonial officials introduced drama performances broadcasting services and publication bureaus into Africa under the rubric of colonial development They used theater radio and mass produced books to spread British values and the English language across the continent This project proved remarkably resilient well after the end of Britain's imperial rule many of its cultural institutions remained in place Through the 1960s and 1970s African audiences continued to attend Shakespeare performances and listen to the BBC while African governments adopted English language textbooks produced by metropolitan publishing houses Imperial Encore traces British drama broadcasting and publishing in Africa between the 1930s and the 1980s the half century spanning the end of British colonial rule and the outset of African national rule Caroline Ritter shows how three major cultural institutions the British Council the BBC and Oxford University Press integrated their work with British imperial aims and continued this project well after the end of formal British rule Tracing these institutions and the media they produced through the tumultuous period of decolonization and its aftermath Ritter offers the first account of the global footprint of British cultural imperialism
