Sustainable Tourism Dialogues in Africa Judy Kepher Gona, Lucy Atieno, 2022-03-21 Focusing on the future of tourism Sustainable Tourism Dialogues in Africa is inclusive of experienced and emerging researchers as well as incorporating local stakeholders in the tourism industry architects tourism operators sustainable tourism lobbyists policy makers archaeologists and geographers The editors are frontline sustainable tourism advocates in Africa and the book's thematic content is derived from 30 inter university seminars on sustainable tourism hosted by Sustainable Travel Tourism Agenda Kenya from 2017 to November 2019. These seminars involved the participation of 17 universities in Kenya, tourism operators, conservationists, developmentalists, investors, policy makers and students. Every chapter is a voice projecting aspirations for the responsible management of tourism in Africa and promoting the ideals of sustainable tourism that young people in Africa advocate for the industry's future. In so doing, the authors pinpoint the necessary actions for bringing about transformations in sustainable development of tourism. The book thus seeks to encourage debate while facilitating the development of both theoretical and practical foundations for managing tourism sustainably in Africa.

Tourism Safety, Security and Resilience Rami K. Isaac, Shem Wambugu Maingi, Vanessa GB Gowresunkaar, 2024-11-18. This significant volume critically explores the implications of tourism safety and security and how communities in tourism destinations try to be resilient in the face of these impacts. Written by leading scholars, this book offers new insight into the conceptual and practical knowledge of community resilience due to tourism security and safety issues. Chapters examine these topics through an integrated community perspective to provide comprehensive consideration of the interconnected facets of a community encompassing social, economic, environmental and cultural dimensions when evaluating and addressing matters pertaining to tourism management, safety, security and resilience. This book is structured around different conceptual, theoretical and practical strategies employed by destinations to foster and sustain community resilience, particularly during periods of crises as well as communities in the context of tourism recovery. It examines this across geographical borders and in many different contexts, not just locations of tourism or types of tourism such as religious tourism and different types of crises including natural disasters, pandemics and terrorism. This book is an essential reading for all tourism students, researchers and academics as well as for those interested in conflict and crises recovery.
