

Assignment 10: National & International Research Paper

Investigating European and Mediterranean Affairs: do you find this section relevant for your research about the cultural differences that exist in Europe?

1. Identity 101

10. What is it that makes people's identity European?

1. Identity 101	Identity is the feeling that someone is not someone else, therefore we are identifying people to their nation. Europeans have been raised with many traditions, practices, values, and customs, that European people share, making them European.
2. Identity 102	Identity is a group of people who share a common culture, language, and history. In the European Union, there are many different languages, but they all share a common history and culture. This is what makes them European.
3. Identity 103	Identity is the feeling that a person is not someone else. It is a feeling that a person has about their culture, language, and history. In the European Union, there are many different languages, but they all share a common history and culture. This is what makes them European.
4. Identity 104 (100%)	The identity of a person is the feeling that they are not someone else. It is a feeling that a person has about their culture, language, and history. In the European Union, there are many different languages, but they all share a common history and culture. This is what makes them European.
5. Identity 105 (100%)	The identity of a person is the feeling that they are not someone else. It is a feeling that a person has about their culture, language, and history.
