Ernest and Frederick's Voyage Joel Biddle,Pam Eden,2014-04 These tales of Ernest and Frederick s enormous experience illustrated here by Pam Eden were penned years ago by Joel Biddle for the enchantment and enlightenment of his children Now you too can enjoy their glorious adventure Frederick is a big fat city mouse who unlike most mice can talk and he s proud to say read Ernest is a cock roach who prefers to eat marmalade topped with pickles and onions When they nd themselves suddenly homeless in Manhattan they must set out together to see the world heading for the hinterland aboard a bus Soon they will encounter a world of little houses and rolling roads in a world where watch out the air smells of snakes And just wait until they meet the humans Tales have been told before about animals and people who do extraordinarily brave things but never ever has there been a story about a city mouse and an apartment cockroach as wonderful as the adventure of Ernest and Frederick Read on

Coast Guard,1971 Royal Navy List ,1909 China Voyager William Joseph Haas,1996 A biography of the scientist who spent 30 years in China as a Methodist educator a Rockefeller official in Beijing and as a biological researcher exemplifies Sino American interaction during the first half of the century Haas history Fort Lewis

College surrounds his themes with the rich atmosphere of China during the period detailing the interplay between religious and secular belief systems encountered by Gee in the educational institutions and in the culture Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR The London Chronicle ,1761 The Charles W. Morgan Andrew W. German,2024-10-15 As America s oldest merchant ship still afloat and the only wooden survivor of the once vital whaling industry the Charles W Morgan has a complex story to tell Elaborating on earlier volumes on the ship s history at Mystic Seaport Museum this new book offers an expanded account chronicling the ship s construction and launch in 1841 through its Thirty Eighth Voyage in 2014 the first time the Morgan had been sailed in more than ninety years and its continuing role today as an historic icon and the Museum s flagship vessel Chapters paint a picture of how whaling developed in Europe and the ways New England colonists adopted it as a profitable venture and then through the ship s own story proceed to sketch the evolution of America s relationship with nature and the whale specifically and with the many peoples of the world who were encountered by or served aboard a whaleship This is the story of a National Historic Landmark one that reflects our changing relationship with the natural world and with the diverse populations of the globe through two centuries of American history The Bookseller, Newsdealer and Stationer ,1909 The Independent ,1909 The Seamen's Journal ,1909 History of Frederick County, Maryland Thomas John Chew Williams,Folger McKinsey,1910 The Law Times ,1870 European Discovery and Exploration of Australia Erwin Feeken,2019-06-21 The map of Australia abounds with fascinating geographical place names the origins of which have for long been hidden in the journals of our early explorers Now after nine years of research Erwin Feeken a highly qualified cartographer and his wife Gerda have finalised the first complete record of Australian geographical place names and the most comprehensive general reference work on Australian exploration ever published In European Discovery and Exploration of Australia there are twenty three beautifully drawn four colour maps plus index showing the routes of more than 120 explorers with the locality of their named features numbered to accord with a Key to the Maps The place names in the Key have been numbered approximately in chronological order of their naming though places found during a single expedition have been grouped together There is also a gazetteer containing over four thousand place names alphabetically arranged with notes on their origins The map reference numbers in brackets form a cross reference with the Key to the Maps The work is introduced by a foreword from Lord Casey and an essay on the nature of Australian exploration by Professor O H K Spate director of the Research School of Pacific Studies Australian National University The text comprising a survey of Australian exploration is arranged in the form of biographies of the explorers describing for the first time several almost unknown figures with emphasis on their expeditions and under the following headings The Approach to Australia Exploration before Settlement 1606 1788 From Botany Bay to the Blue Mountains 1788 1813 Land and Sea Expeditions 1813 1901 This section of the book is very fully illustrated with 18 full colour plates and some 150 black and white photographs mostly reproductions of early prints Concluding the book are bibliographies of sources and references a list of illustrations and an index of explorers and ships The comprehensive nature of this work will ensure that it becomes a valuable reference book for students while the text and illustrations will appeal to all who are interested in our history Collectors of Australiana will welcome this most attractive addition to the ever increasing number of available publications France and New England: Containing an account of Champlains' three voyages along the New England coast
