Y. Chan,Michael O'Sullivan,2016-10-22 This book brings together the perspectives of eminent and emerging scholars on contemporary issues relevant to the practice pedagogy and institutionalization of the humanities in the three Chinese contexts of Hong Kong Taiwan and mainland China It addresses the need to investigate how humanities discussions often exclusively drawn from and grounded in western contexts are today being played out in these three places The humanities in contemporary Chinese contexts may have different social and pedagogical roles and a consideration of them will enable people to moderate and perhaps even refute claims made in the recent re readings of the humanities As Asian universities rise in the global rankings and as east west university collaborations and partnerships become more common it is important that the nature practice and institutionalization of the humanities in Hong Kong Taiwan and mainland China are explored and described for English readers Exploring new perspectives arising from an examination of the humanities in these places this volume aims neither to establish a position of polarity which would pit western sites against Chinese ones nor to argue for universal sameness Rather the goal is to find nuanced correspondences and differences between these various backgrounds so that there is a greater understanding of the specificities of Chinese contexts This will help shed light not only on the contexts in question but also potentially on how to rearticulate the importance of the humanities in general creating an intercultural dialogue focused on the humanities As the global university strives to move the different traditions of learning closer together through international rankings rubrics and shared research agendas it is important that we explore these locations of potential cultural exchange Caribbean Children's Literature, Volume 1 Betsy Nies,Melissa García Vega,2023-05-18 Contributions by Mar a V Acevedo Aquino Consuella Bennett Florencia V Cornet Stacy Ann Creech Zeila Frade Melissa Garc a Vega Ann Gonz lez Louise Hardwick Barbara Lalla Megan Jeanette Myers Betsy Nies Karen Sanderson Cole Karen Sands O Connor Geraldine Elizabeth Skeete and Aisha T Spencer The world of Caribbean children s literature finds its roots in folktales and storytelling As countries distanced themselves from former colonial powers post 1950s the field has taken a new turn that emerges not just from writers within the region but also from those of its diaspora Rich in language diversity and history contemporary Caribbean children s literature offers a window into the ongoing representations of not only local realities but also the fantasies that structure the genre itself Young adult literature entered the region in the 1970s offering much needed representations of teenage voices and concerns With the growth of local competitions and publishing awards the genre has gained momentum providing a new field of scholarly analyses Similarly the field of picture books has also deepened Caribbean Children s Literature Volume 1 History Pedagogy and Publishing includes general coverage of children s literary history in the regions where the four major colonial powers have left their imprint addresses intersections between pedagogy and children s literature in the Anglophone Caribbean explores the challenges of producing and publishing picture books and engages with local authors familiar with the terrain Local writers come together to discuss writerly concerns and publishing challenges In new interviews conducted for this volume international authors Edwidge Danticat Junot Diaz and Olive Senior discuss their transition from writing for adults to creating picture books for children

Ethics, Law and the Business of Being Human Charles Foster, 2025-09-02 This book presents an inquiry into the sort of creatures we are If we don t know what we are we can have no idea how to behave or thrive either as individuals or as a society This book in a series of short essays addresses the most fundamental question facing each of us We are not here long how then should we live as individuals and as members of society Philosophers and lawyers have long asked the question but their answers are often garbled and they have not learned a language in which to talk to one another The Academy which should lead the debate is often too riddled with presumption and systemic dysfunction to be either useful or interesting Foster surveys the academic and legal landscape critically and suggests how some of the ills can be remedied

Beyond Shareholder Primacy Stuart Hart, 2024-04-09 From the author of Capitalism at the Crossroads a call to consciousness and action for individuals organizations communities and nations Our current Milton Friedman style shareholder primacy capitalism as taught in business schools and embraced around the world has become dangerous for society the climate and the planet Moreover Stuart L Hart argues it s economically unnecessary But there are surprising reasons for hope from the history of capitalism itself Beyond Shareholder Primacy argues that capitalism has reformed itself twice before and is poised for a third major reformation Retelling the origin story of capitalism from the fifteenth century to the present Hart argues that a radically sustainable just capitalism is possible and even likely in our lifetime Hart goes on to describe what it will take to move beyond capitalism s present worship of shareholder primacy including corporate transformations to re embed purpose and reforms to major economic institutions A key requirement is eliminating the externalities or collateral damage of our current shareholder capitalism Sustainable capitalism will explicitly incorporate the needs of society and the planet include a financial system that allows leaders to prioritize the planet reorganize business schools around sustainable management thinking and enable corporations not just to stop ignoring the damage they cause but actually begin to create positive impact

Muslim Women and Agency: an Australian Context

Ghena Krayem, Susan Carland, 2021-11-01 Muslim women's freedom or assumed lack thereof has long been a Western obsession. Almost never do we ask what does agency look like to Muslim women? Who or what do they think constrains them and how do they challenge that? Focussing on the little researched area of the Australian Muslim community, this book brings together for the first time diverse accounts from Australian Muslim researchers, leaders, and community workers to interrogate how Muslim women understand experience and fight for agency. Academic and activist, personal and political, this ground-breaking book features the people at the centre of the debate. Contributors are Feda Abdo, Amira Aftab, Mahsheed Ansari, Fadi Baghdadi, Susan Carland, Tasneem Chopra, Mehreen Faruqi, Derya Iner, Balawyn Jones, Souha Korbatieh, Ghena Krayem, Mehal Krayem, and Ayah Wehbe.
